“That’s one small step for a man; one giant leap for mankind.”

The words uttered by Neil Armstrong when he first stepped onto the moon July 20 are representative of our time. With a small step, we realized that we had accomplished much in a short amount of time.

Each student experienced a similar feeling of accomplishment in high school. We accomplished much in three years at NHS. The studying, the homework, the athletic events, the clubs and organizations, dances, assemblies, graduation — every one was a small step forward to better things.

As we approached the termination of our high school experiences, we stopped and remembered all the small steps we had taken, and saw the giant leap we had made.

ADMINISTRATION

School Board gains new members

THE SCHOOL BOARD meets every month to set school policy. School Board members: Mrs. Keith Garrison, Mr.

Richard Hrdlicka, Mr. Mike Almanza, Dr. Lee Fent, Mr. Gene Titus, Mr. Harold Lowe, and Mr. Thomas Walker.

SCHOOL BOARD AND SUPERINTENDENT

Superintendent Assumes Duties

Although new to the Newton School System, Dr. Virgil R. Poore is well qualified for his duties as head administrator. With more than thirteen years of administrative experience and his doctorate from the University of Nebraska, Dr. Poore is proficient in his work as superintendent. Having previously served as the Superintendent of Schools in Cozad, Nebraska, Supt. Poore has brought new ideas and concepts with him which should benefit the school system and community of Newton.

The School Board also gained several new members during the summer. Mrs. H. Keith Garrison and Mr. Richard F. Hrdlicka were newly elected last summer as members to the School Board. Soon after that, a revision in the state legislation made it necessary for the School Board to appoint a seventh member. Mr. Mike Almanza was selected for this position which became effective the first of August. The enlargement of the School Board is providing even better representation in the school district.

AS SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS, Dr. Virgil R. Poore is the executive officer of the School Board. In addition to this, he must evaluate the quality of teaching, determine school boundaries, and inform the public of educational opportunities and advancements. These numerous duties require many devoted hours of work and achievement.

Vice-principal directs athletics

SERVING as both Vice-Principal and Director of Athletics, Mr. Curtis Fischer maintained a constantly full schedule.

One of the more unpleasant duties of Mr. Fischer was disciplinary action against unruly students.

PRINCIPAL AND VICE-PRINCIPAL

New Principal administers NHS

In his first year as principal of Newton High School, Mr. Bernard Scheer has already done much to improve and change the school. Among these accomplishments are the establishment of a student center, the issuance of student identification cards, and revisions in the dress code. In contrast to Mr. Scheer's relative inexperience at Newton High School, Mr. Curtis Fischer has been working to improve and develop NHS for more than twenty-one years as both a teacher and an administrator.

Mr. Scheer began his college education at the University of Nebraska which he attended for two years until he was called for military service. After his discharge, he received his BA from Hastings College and later did summer work at the University of Nebraska where he received his Masters Degree in 1961. Presently Mr. Scheer is completing requirements for his Doctorate from the University of Wyoming where he was a graduate assistant in the College of Education last summer.

AS PRINCIPAL, Mr. Bernard Scheer must coordinate all school activities and special events. Mr. Scheer is also responsible for maintaining a high standard of education at Newton High School.

COUNSELORS AND SECRETARIES

Mr. Sneed resigns after five years

Mr. Gary Sneed, counselor at NHS since 1964, resigned in November. He accepted a job in industrial engineering at Hesston Manufacturing Company.

Mr. Alden Allbaugh, remaining counselor, with the help of his secretary, Mrs. Jean Schroeder, dealt with student problems. He helped students decide which subjects to take, what colleges to attend, and what vocational fields to enter.

NHS secretaries, Mrs. Karen McAdow and Mrs. Darlene Stucky, tried a new system of handling absences this year. Absences were recorded each hour and the parents of these absent students were called. This helped cut down on "skipping".

COUNSELORS: Mr. Gary Sneed and Mr. Alden Allbaugh.

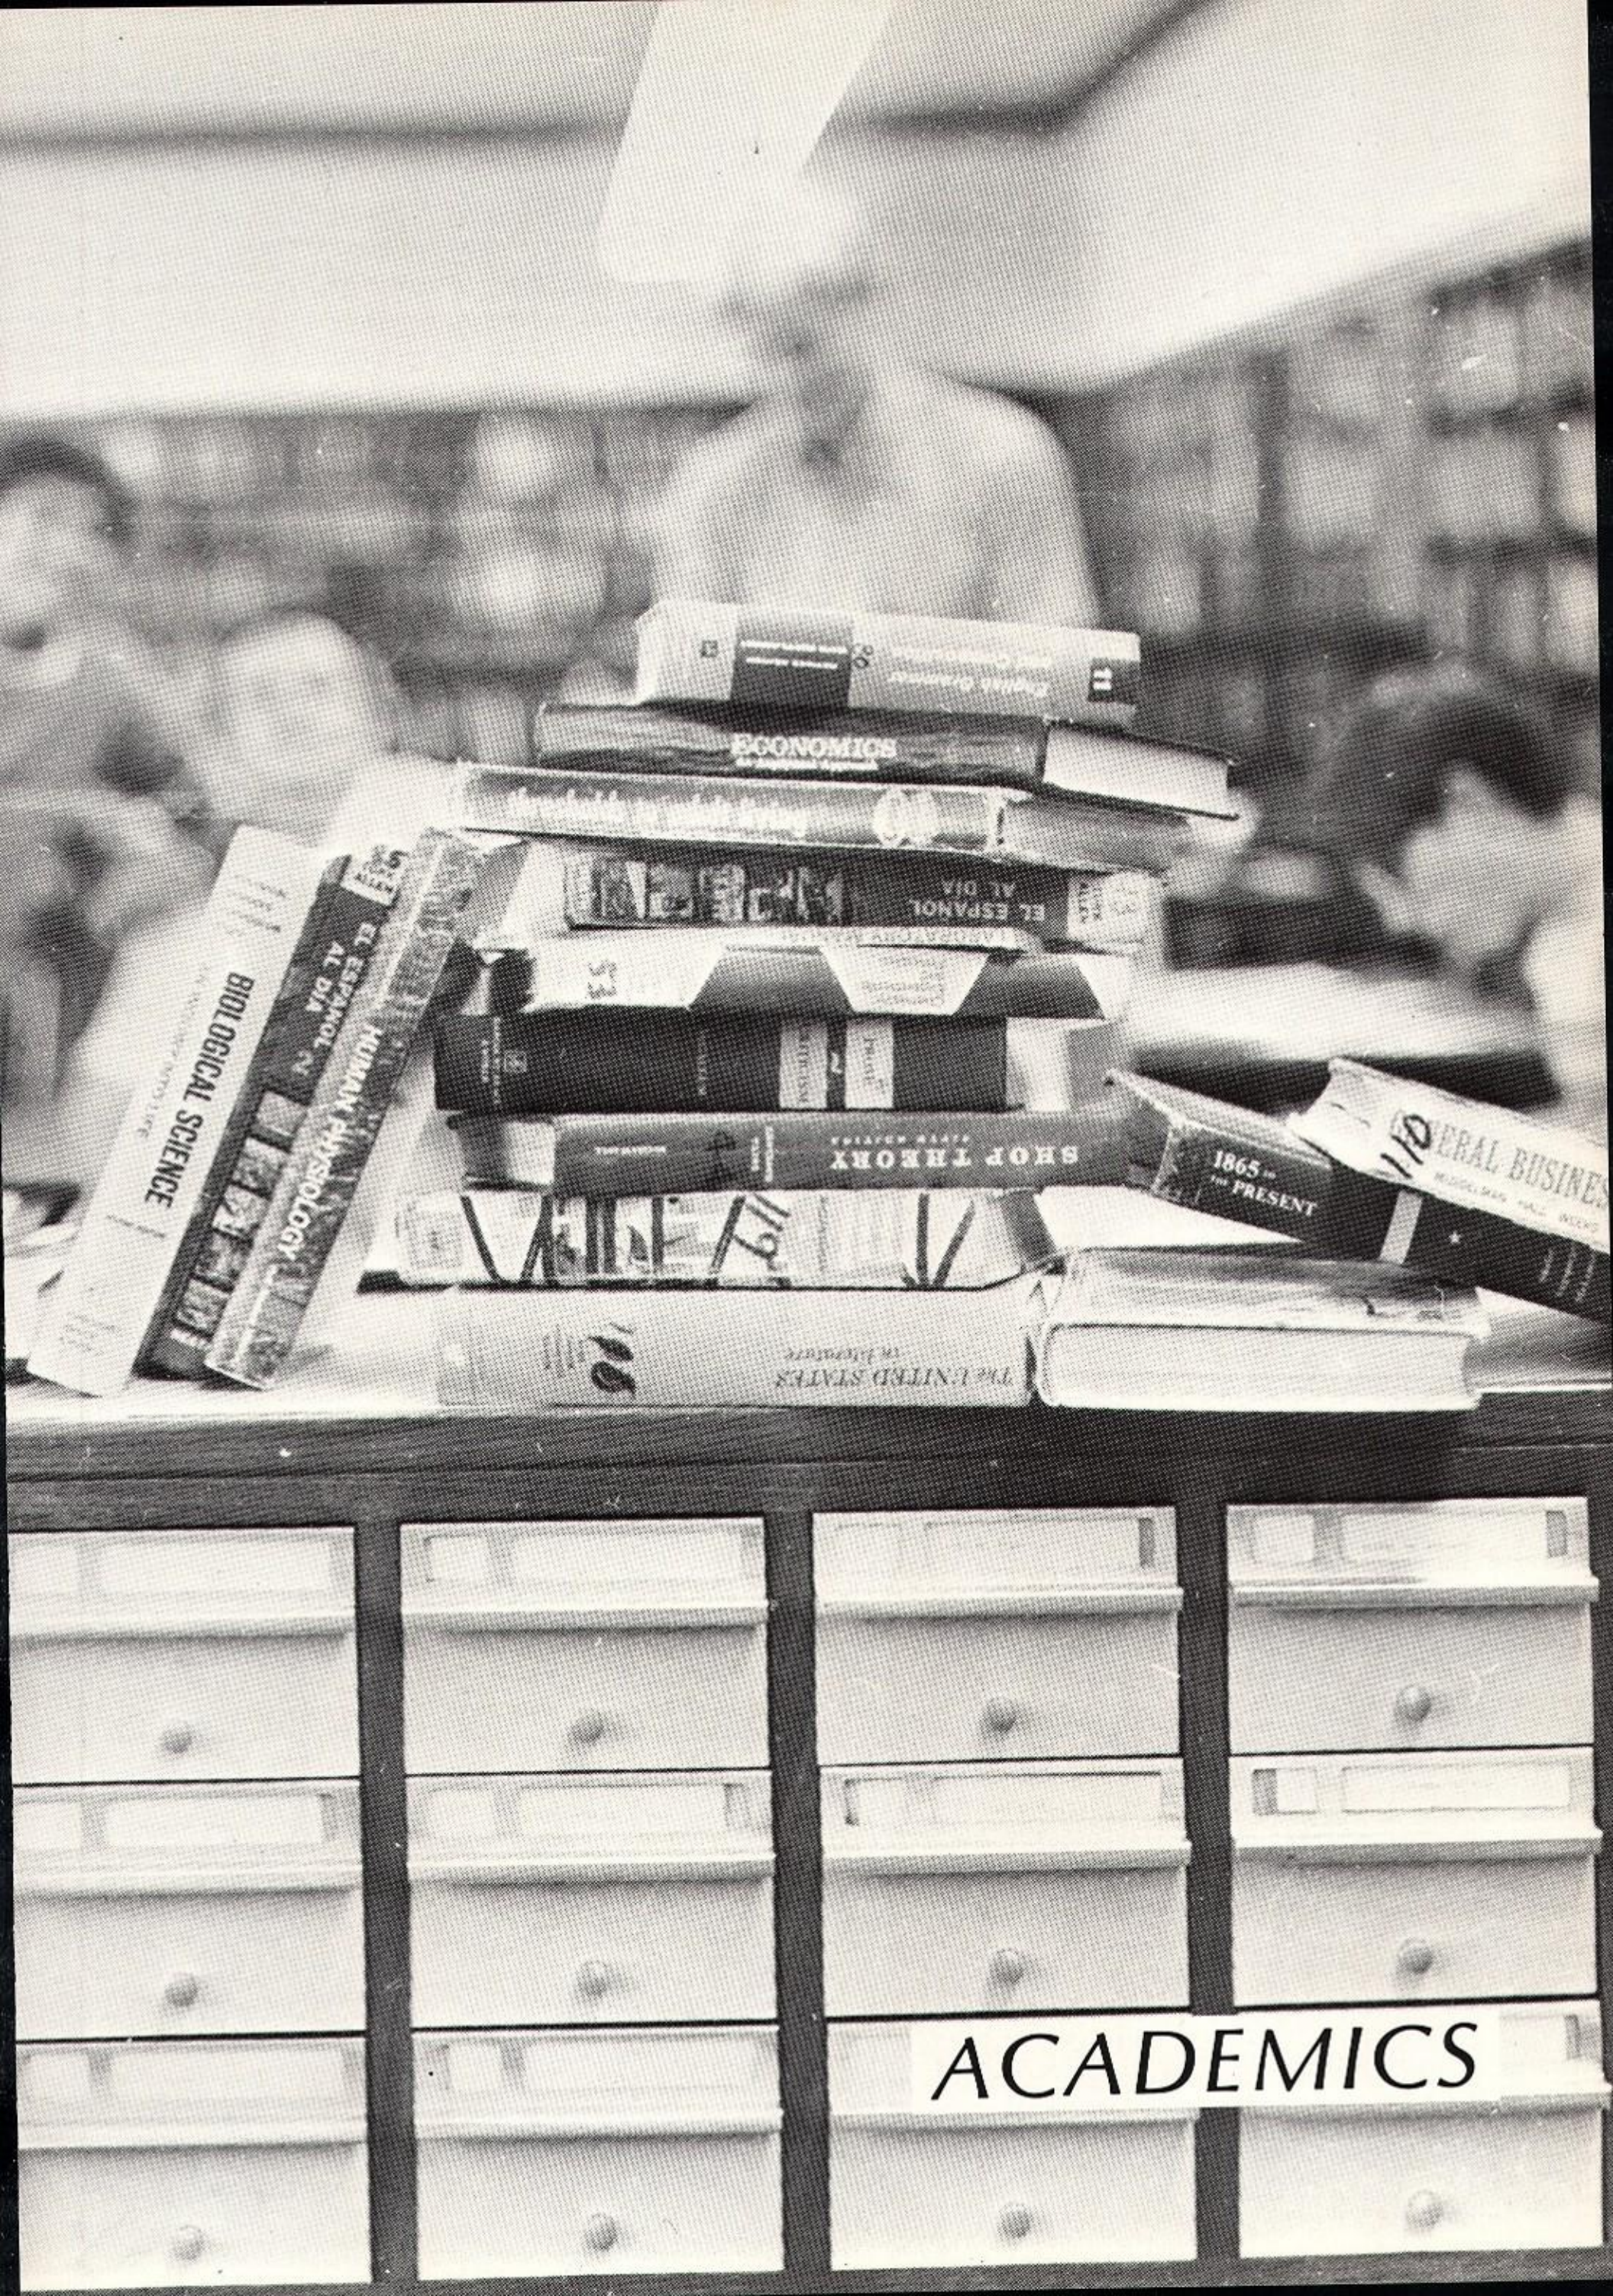

MR. ALLBAUGH offers advice to senior Tim Chambers.

MRS. SCHROEDER worked in the guidance office mornings.

MRS. MCADOW and Mrs. Stucky took orders and filled out forms for basketball tickets.

Students acquire artistic ability

This year art classes received an education of art techniques and history through films presented by Mr. Preston.

Art I and II classes practiced their skills in a variety of media, including water color, pastel, and charcoal. These classes learned techniques in line, form, texture, balance, and color. Art III was composed of thirteen members wishing to continue their art skills. Students in this class must be chosen by the instructor. Students of all three classes completed projects shown by the LaVella Club in January.

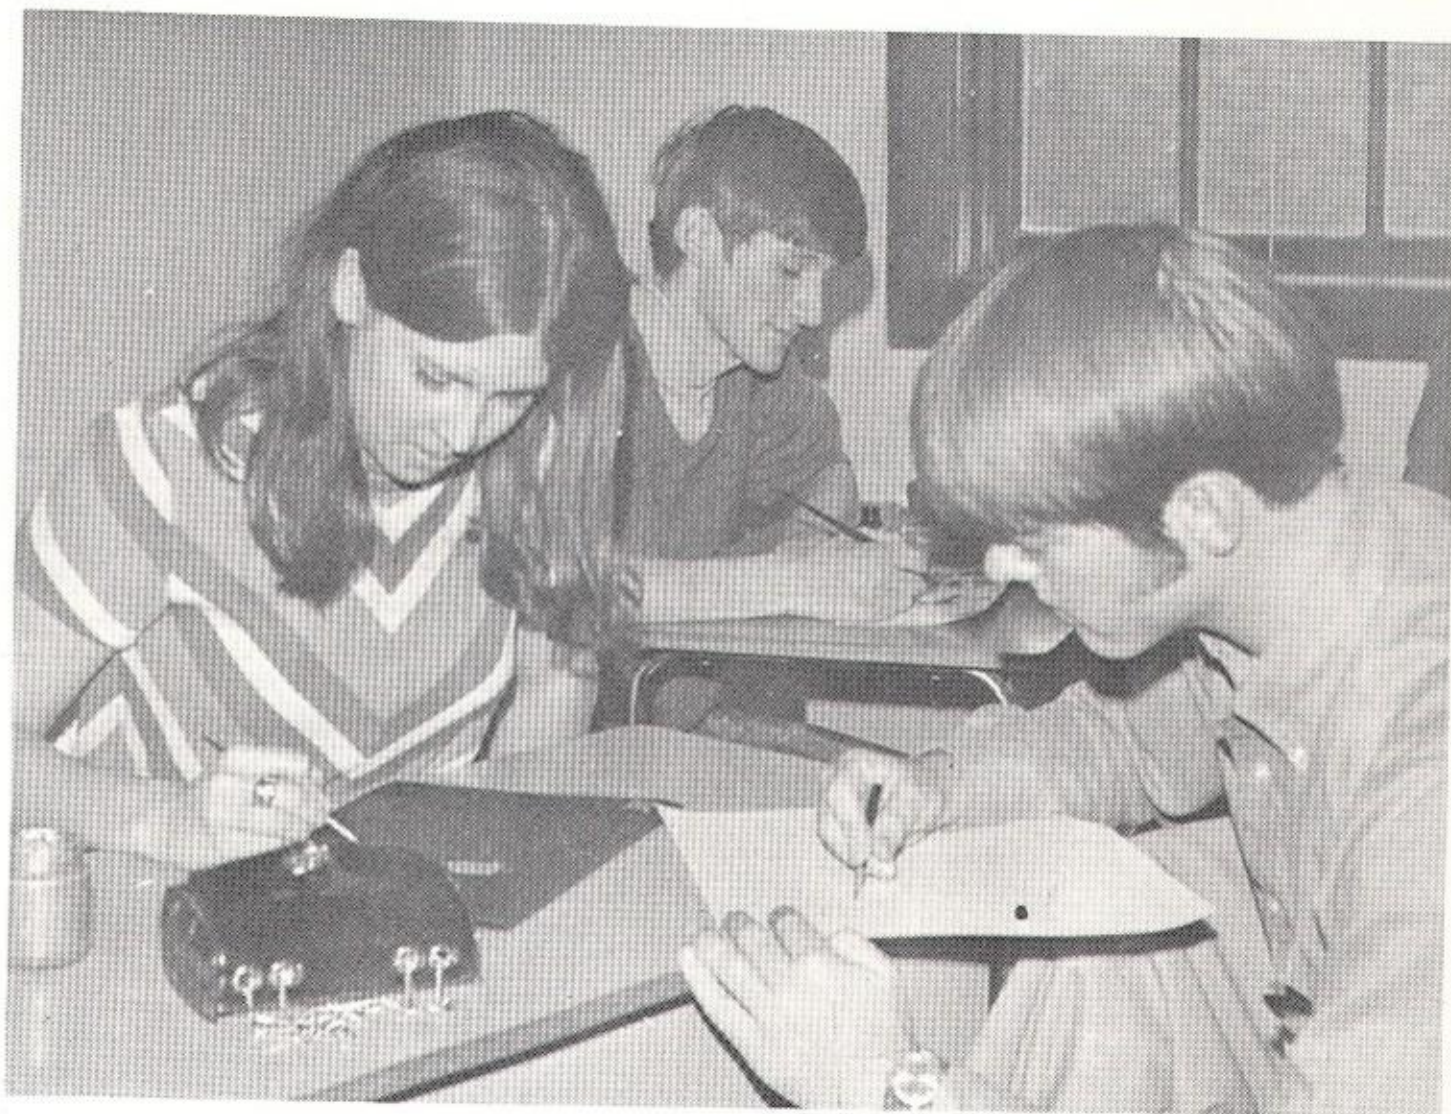

ART AIDES Ken Peterson, Dan Hollingshead, Becky Stroud, and Cheryl Isaac decorate the Christmas tree provided by Art III.

ART DEPARTMENT: Larry Preston

GLORIA MOBERLY, Steve Simmons, and Bob Gustafson work on projects in their Art II classes.

MANUAL ARTS

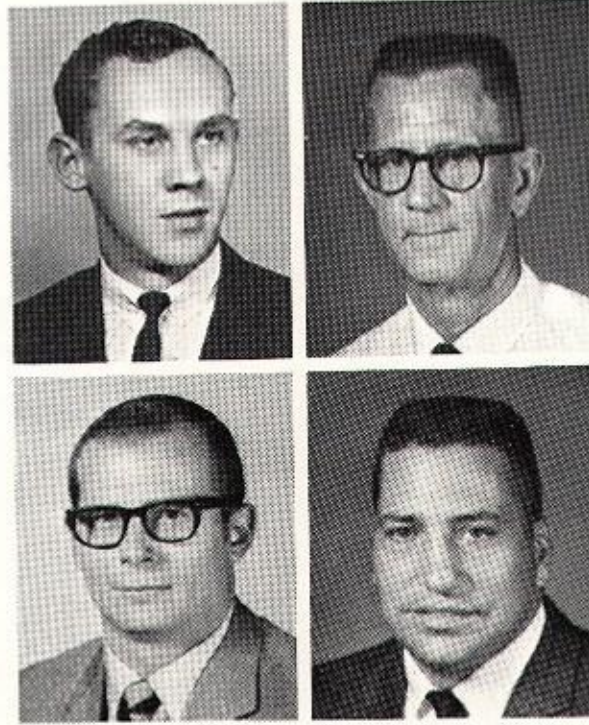

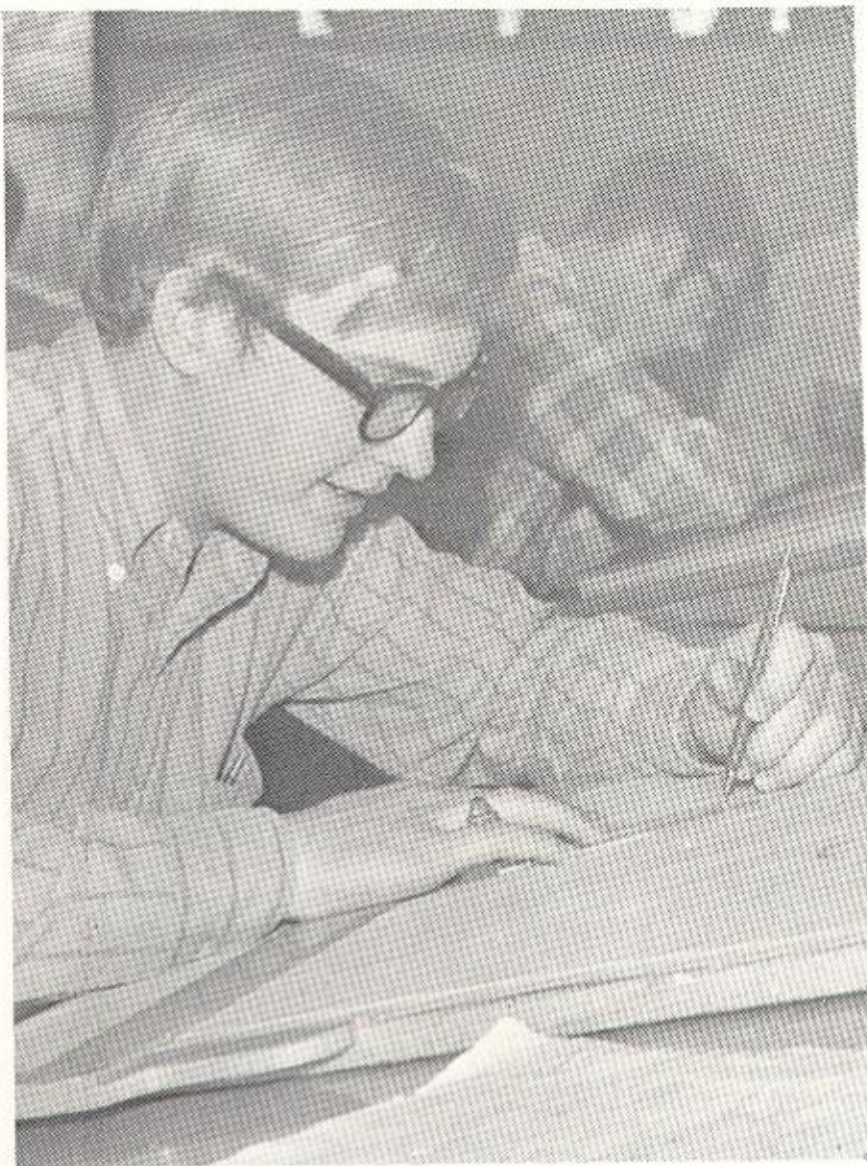

Students gain new talents

Two new classes were added to the Manual Arts Department this year. Transportation, taught by Mr. Franz, dealt with the mechanics of traveling apparatus. The other new class, Light Construction, was taught by Mr. Funk. This class dealt with building furniture and the processes entailed in constructing buildings.

A new teacher came to the department this year. Mr. Benninga taught Mechanical Drawing I, II, and III.

Other courses offered in this department were Woods and Crafts. These courses offer students a chance to learn new skills with their hands by constructing small projects.

RON SUNDQUIST, Drawing III student, works on the floorplan of a building which he designed.

MANUAL ARTS DEPARTMENT: Maurice Benninga, Darwin Berry, Kenneth Franz, Francis Funk.

MARCIA WHITE works dilligently on a decoupage in her Crafts class.

LANGUAGE ARTS

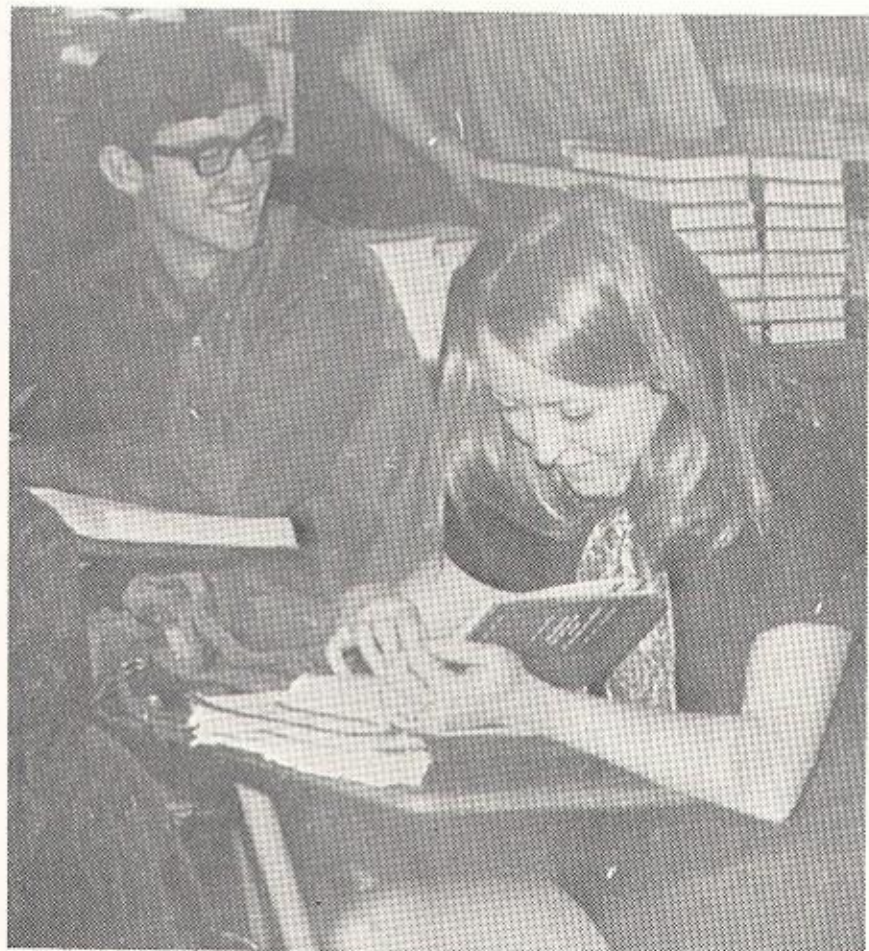

Sophomores write short stories

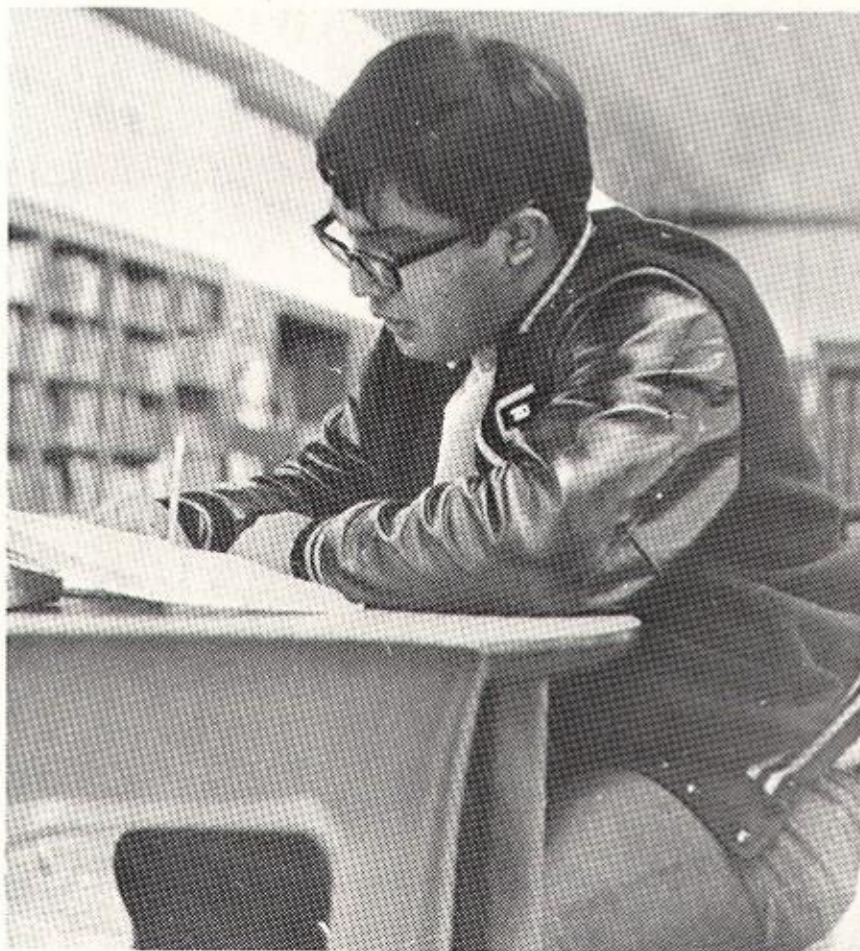

LIBRARY SCIENCE STUDENT Gloria Moberly checks out a book to senior Barb Phillips while Nancy Lewis looks on.

LANGUAGE ARTS DEPARTMENT: Mrs. Mildred Bumgarner, Mrs. Barbara Fedderson, Mrs. Clara Hendersen, Mrs. Susan Kaufman, David McCracken, Mrs. Irmgard Mills, Miss Linda Nichols, Mrs. Gladys Niles, Miss Bonnie Selanders, Miss Joy Smith, Alden Statton, Miss Ann Thrailkill.

COLLEGE PREP ENGLISH students Vickie McKelvey and Roger Goodman study transformational grammar in Miss Smith's fourth hour class.

SENIOR DAN GONZALES, in one of his studious moods, works on his term paper for his General English IV class.

SENIORS Susan Wallace, Tom Thornbrough, and Dave Slack discuss the fine points of the novel PASSAGE TO INDIA.

LANGUAGE ARTS

Debaters take third in state

After the debate year had ended, the NHS debaters entered the post-season tournaments. At the first tournament, the Regionals, the Newton squad placed first. The following week the debaters went to Emporia for the State meet, placing third. Coach McCracken stated, "I am very pleased with this year's squad, especially one girl, Mary Snapp, who compiled a record of 45 wins with only 8 defeats."

This year the Drama Department added two new classes. Dramatics II was created for those students wishing to go further than Drama I in the field of dramatics. Students enrolling in the other new class, Dramatics II Section II, learned about backstage techniques. This class included the study of make-up, lighting, sound effects, and set construction.

SENIORS Cathy Sears and Viki Myers are shown in a rehearsal for SLEEPING BEAUTY.

JUMPING ROPE proves to be a method of relaxation for debaters Patty Shelly, Michelle Frieson, and Mary Snapp prior to leaving for the regional debate tournament.

Mr. David McCracken and his debaters Patty Shelly, Barb Smith, Cathy Graber, Mary Snapp, Ada Schmidt, and Michelle Friesen display the third place trophy they won at the state tournament in Emporia.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

New French Teacher Tours Europe

New to the French department this year was Miss Virginia Smith replacing Miss Olive Anderson, who retired at the end of last year. Miss Smith spent two weeks during the Christmas holidays touring Europe. She visited Germany, France, Switzerland, and Luxembourg. Among the tourist spots she saw were the Eiffel Tower, the Arch of Triumph, the Alps, and the Palace of Luxembourg.

Foreign Language this year included French I, II, and III, Latin I and II, and Spanish I, II, and III. Through the use of the lab, filmstrips, tapes, maps, and lectures, students gained a better understanding of the people, customs, and languages of foreign countries.

WORKING HARD to improve their proficiency in Latin are Sam Bland and Cynthia Froelick.

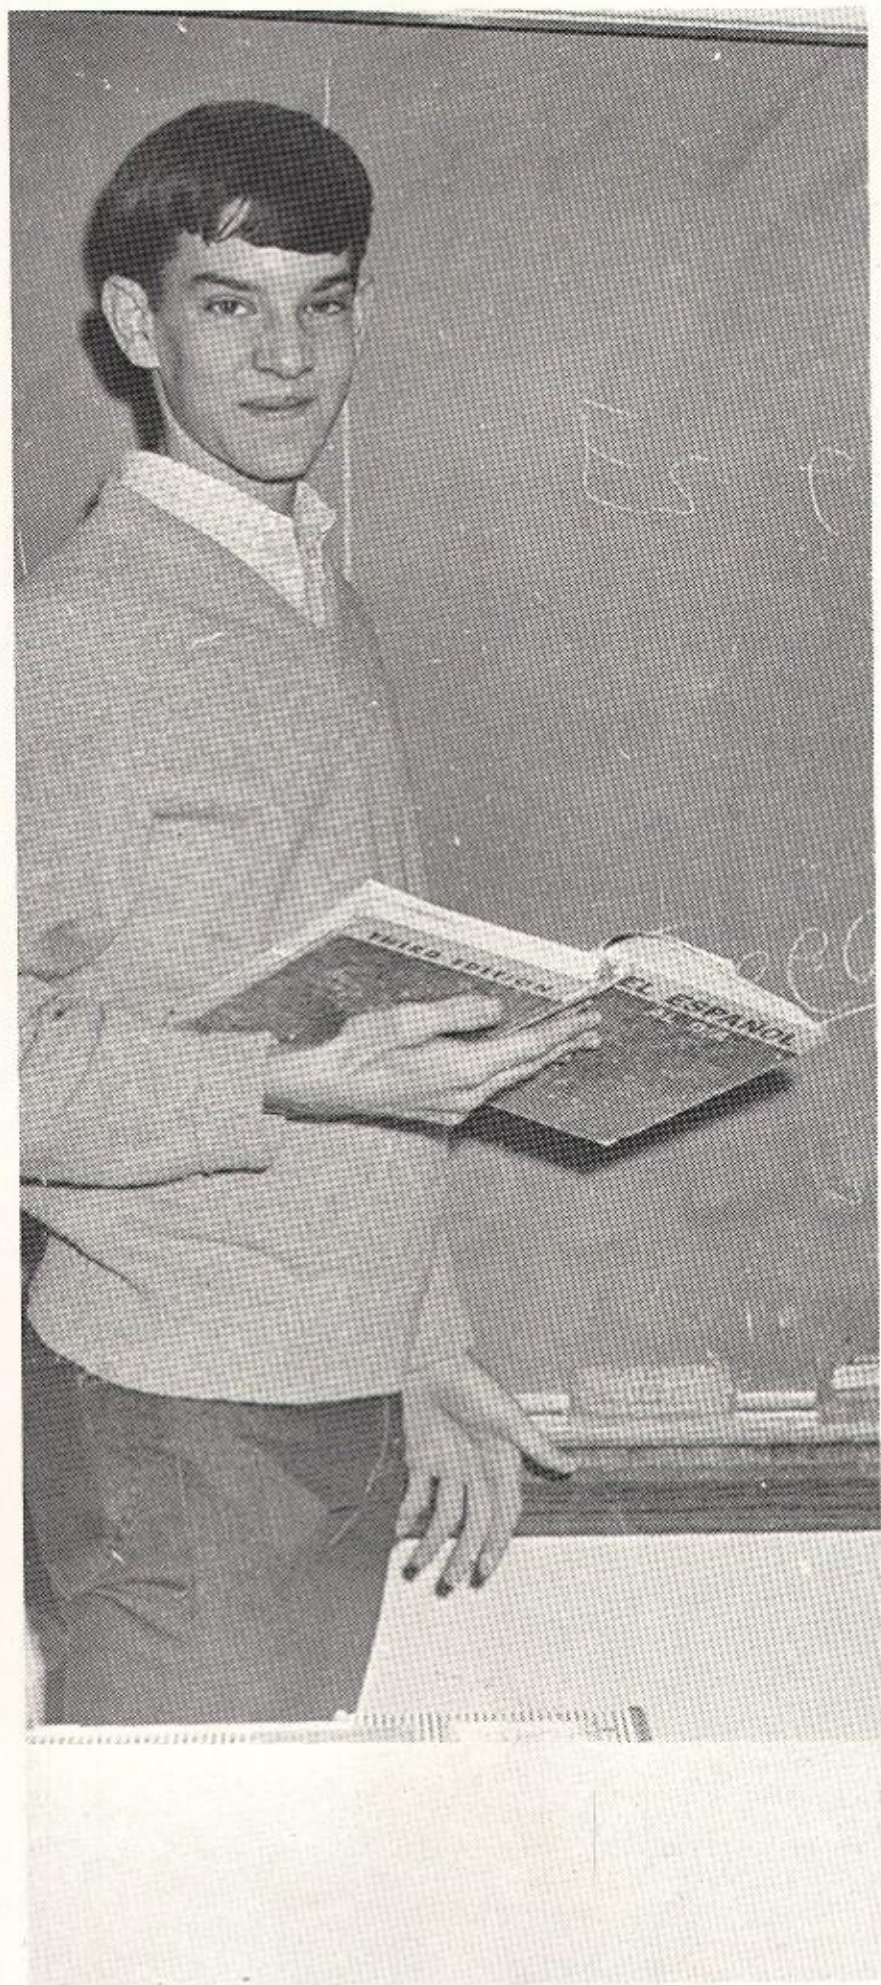

MISS SMITH points out to two of her French students, Michaelle Bouzek and Terry McCreary, the French cities she visited on her two week tour of Europe she took during the Christmas holidays.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT: Miss Virginia Smith, Mrs. Maria Chaple, Mrs. Pat Randall, Miss Bonnie Selanders.

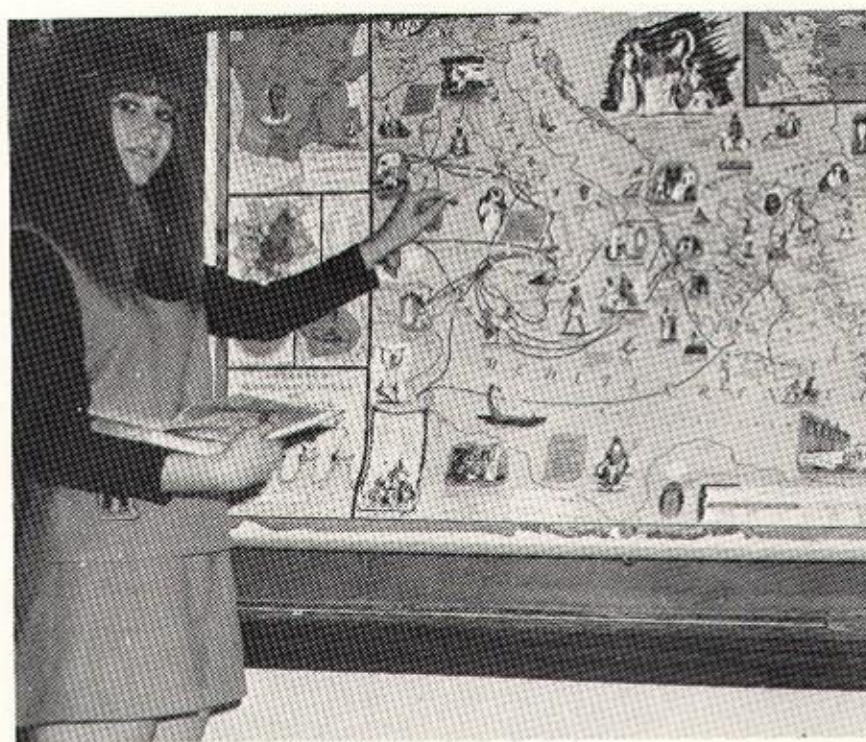

JIM ISAAC recites and translates a lesson for his Spanish II class.

FRENCH II STUDENT, Craig Oliver, concentrates on his French while Dave Slack receives help from Miss Smith.

POINTING OUT an area in Italy, Debbie Nelson illustrates a point in her report for the rest of her Latin class.

Girls visit Kansas Health Museum

Home Management students spent two weeks planning an imaginary wedding, paging through bridal magazines looking for the prettiest dress, proper wedding music, and suggestions to reduce the expense of a real wedding.

The class visited the Kansas Health Museum in February to supplement a course on Home Nursing taught by Mrs. Betty Baker, school nurse. Home Management was taught by Mrs. Akin and by Mrs. Gordon.

Clothing I students, taught by Mrs. Akin and Mrs. Meirowsky, learned the basic fundamentals of constructing skirts as the advanced clothing classes studied design and textiles and applied them to construction of a wool suit.

Foods classes instructed by Mrs. Gordon learned the nutritional value of foods, and menu planning. They arranged a complete breakfast and ended the year with a tea in the spring.

JILL BUCKMAN, Sherry Meacham, Karen Meires, and Cindy Budde Lowe make divinity in Foods class.

BARB PHILLIPS, Linda Peterson, and Melody Harrison finish their Christmas projects for Home Management class.

KAY WASHBURN SAYS "shorter" as Vicki Decker pins the hem in the wool jumper made in Clothing II.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT: Mrs. Maridene Akin, Mrs. Hazel Gordon, and Mrs. Nancy Meirowsky.

CLOTHING AID, Joyce Pauley, gives Missy Walkenhurst advice on the construction of a wool skirt.

JOYCE PAULEY, Diana Scheffler, and Debbie Donker make gumdrop cookies in third hour Foods class.

RAILROADER

Deliver annuals in mid-summer

The 1970 Railroader featured coverage of newly organized girl's sports and extra curricular clubs, as well as regular school activities. The staff, headed by editor Nancy Lewis, designed its own division pages and the new layout. They worked hard to capture in words and pictures an interesting collection of the year's events. A mid-summer delivery made it possible for the staff to distribute the yearbook to 700 students, teachers and businesses, some of which had their company name embossed on the cover.

YEARBOOK STAFF MEMBERS work diligently typing and arranging final copy on their pages to meet a deadline.

Dana England, Kim Krueger, Linda Peterson, Karen Metzler, Jack Burns, and Roger Goodman.

NEWTONIAN

Staff publishes fourteen issues

Fourteen issues of the Newtonian were published this year and were distributed to 1100 students and teachers at Newton High, the junior highs, businesses in town, and several former students, as well as exchanges with other high school newspapers.

The staff of eleven members, one of the smallest, included two photographers. The staff was responsible for selling advertisements, writing all their stories, and organizing the newspaper.

This year's staff editor was Greg Sacks and co-editor was Kathy Snyder. Other staff members were Warren Kersey, Cheryl Morford, Tom Church, Rosalie Wall, Becky Pankratz, Don Snapp, and Viki Myers. Photographers were Curtis Schmidt and Pat Bishop.

PHOTOGRAPHERS for the Railroader and Newtonian were seniors Curtis Schmidt and Craig Thompson. Their assistants were juniors Dan Thomas and Pat Bishop.

STAFF MEMBERS for the 1969 — 1970 Newtonian were BACK ROW: Greg Sacks, Kathy Snyder, Tom Church, Viki

Myers, Warren Kersey, Cheryl Morford, FRONT: Becky Pankratz, Rosalie Wall, and Don Snapp.

MATH AND SCIENCE

WORKING TOGETHER to complete their chemistry experiment are Ron Johnson and Hugh Grant.

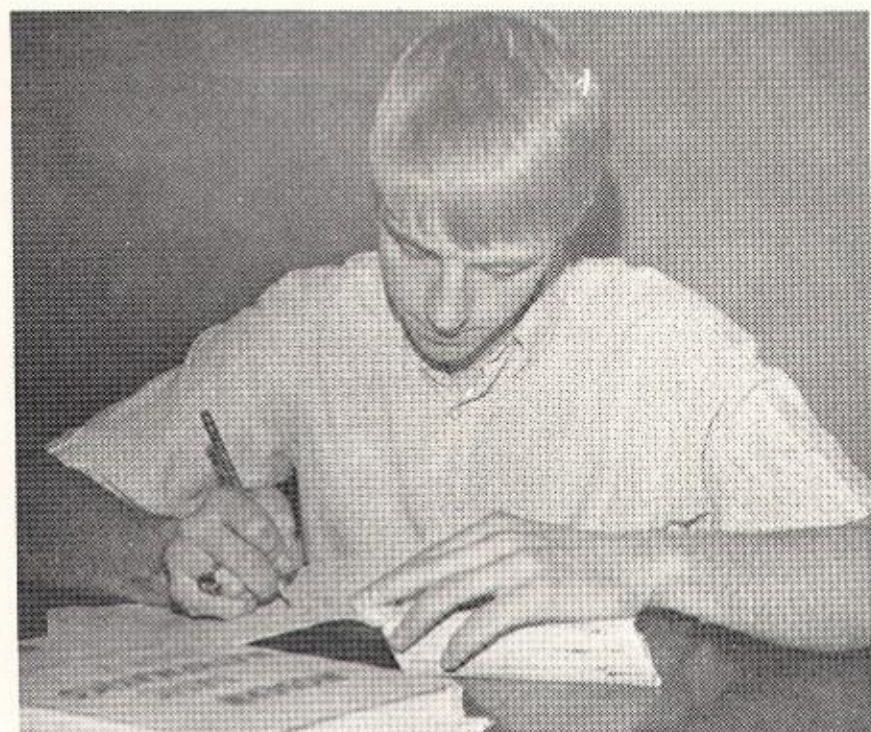

Increased laboratory facilities at Newton High School have given an ever increasing number of science students the opportunity to observe and perform experiments. An expanding and growing science program also permits students to choose those subjects which interest them most. The mathematics program has also been expanding by offering several different approaches and concepts of math to suit the individual needs of almost every student.

OBSERVING THE RESULTS of their experiment in second hour physics class are Ken Coleman and John Fitzgerald.

DURING STUDY PERIOD Mr. Tillett explains a problem on the assignment to John Hamm.

INSTRUCTOR'S AID DALE WAHLERS grades daily assignments for Mr. Tillett's fourth hour math class.

LEAVING AT THE END of the first semester, Mr. Howard Schmidt found added challenge in his new profession.

MATH AND SCIENCE DEPARTMENTS: Melvin Akin, Charles Engel, Phillip Esau, Mrs. Joy Moore, Clarence Niles, Tom Sawin, Ivan Schirer, Howard Schmidt, Cliff Tillett, and Don Willson.

BAND AND ORCHESTRA

New uniforms enhance appearance

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC DEPARTMENT: Dwight Beckham and Gary Fletcher.

New uniforms were worn by the band this year. They were black with gold trim and could be used for concert or marching appearances with few minor adjustments.

The marching band had a very busy year. Besides participating in halftime shows at home football games, they marched in the Veterans' Day Parade and helped welcome home the 89th Division from Viet Nam. The highlight of the year was the trip to Lawrence where they took part in the annual University of Kansas Band Day on November 1.

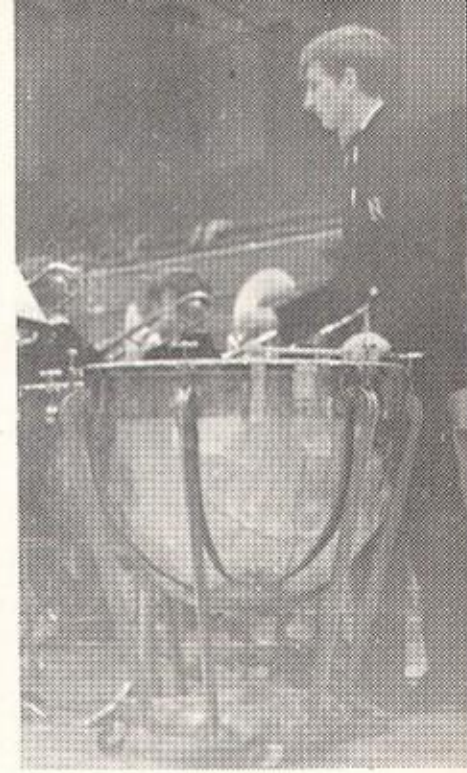

The concert band performed in Lindley Hall on January 22 and again in March. The orchestra also gave a concert on February 26. Both groups spent the remainder of the year in preparation for the State Music Festival in the Spring.

Mr. Gary Fletcher, in summary of class activity, feels they enjoy "a love and appreciation of all kinds of music" and "a sense of accomplishment through a well coordinated group effort."

CONCERT BAND — FRONT ROW: Carol Blosser, Glenna Holdeman, Michaelle Bouzek, Cindy Unruh, Penny Barker, Carol Berg, Marilyn Chandler, Annette Nance, Christa Tompkins, and Liz Turner. DISPLAYING their new uniforms is the Newton High School Marching Band. The uniforms can also be used for concert appearances. Leading the band in parades and at football halftime shows were Dwight Wiebe, drum major, and majorettes Cindy Unruh, Ruthe Ashcraft, Carol Hammonds, and Cindy Budde Lowe.

THE CHORALEERS sing "Girl of My Dreams" during coronation ceremonies of Railer Week.

VOCAL MUSIC DEPARTMENT:
Leon Ballenger

VOCAL MUSIC

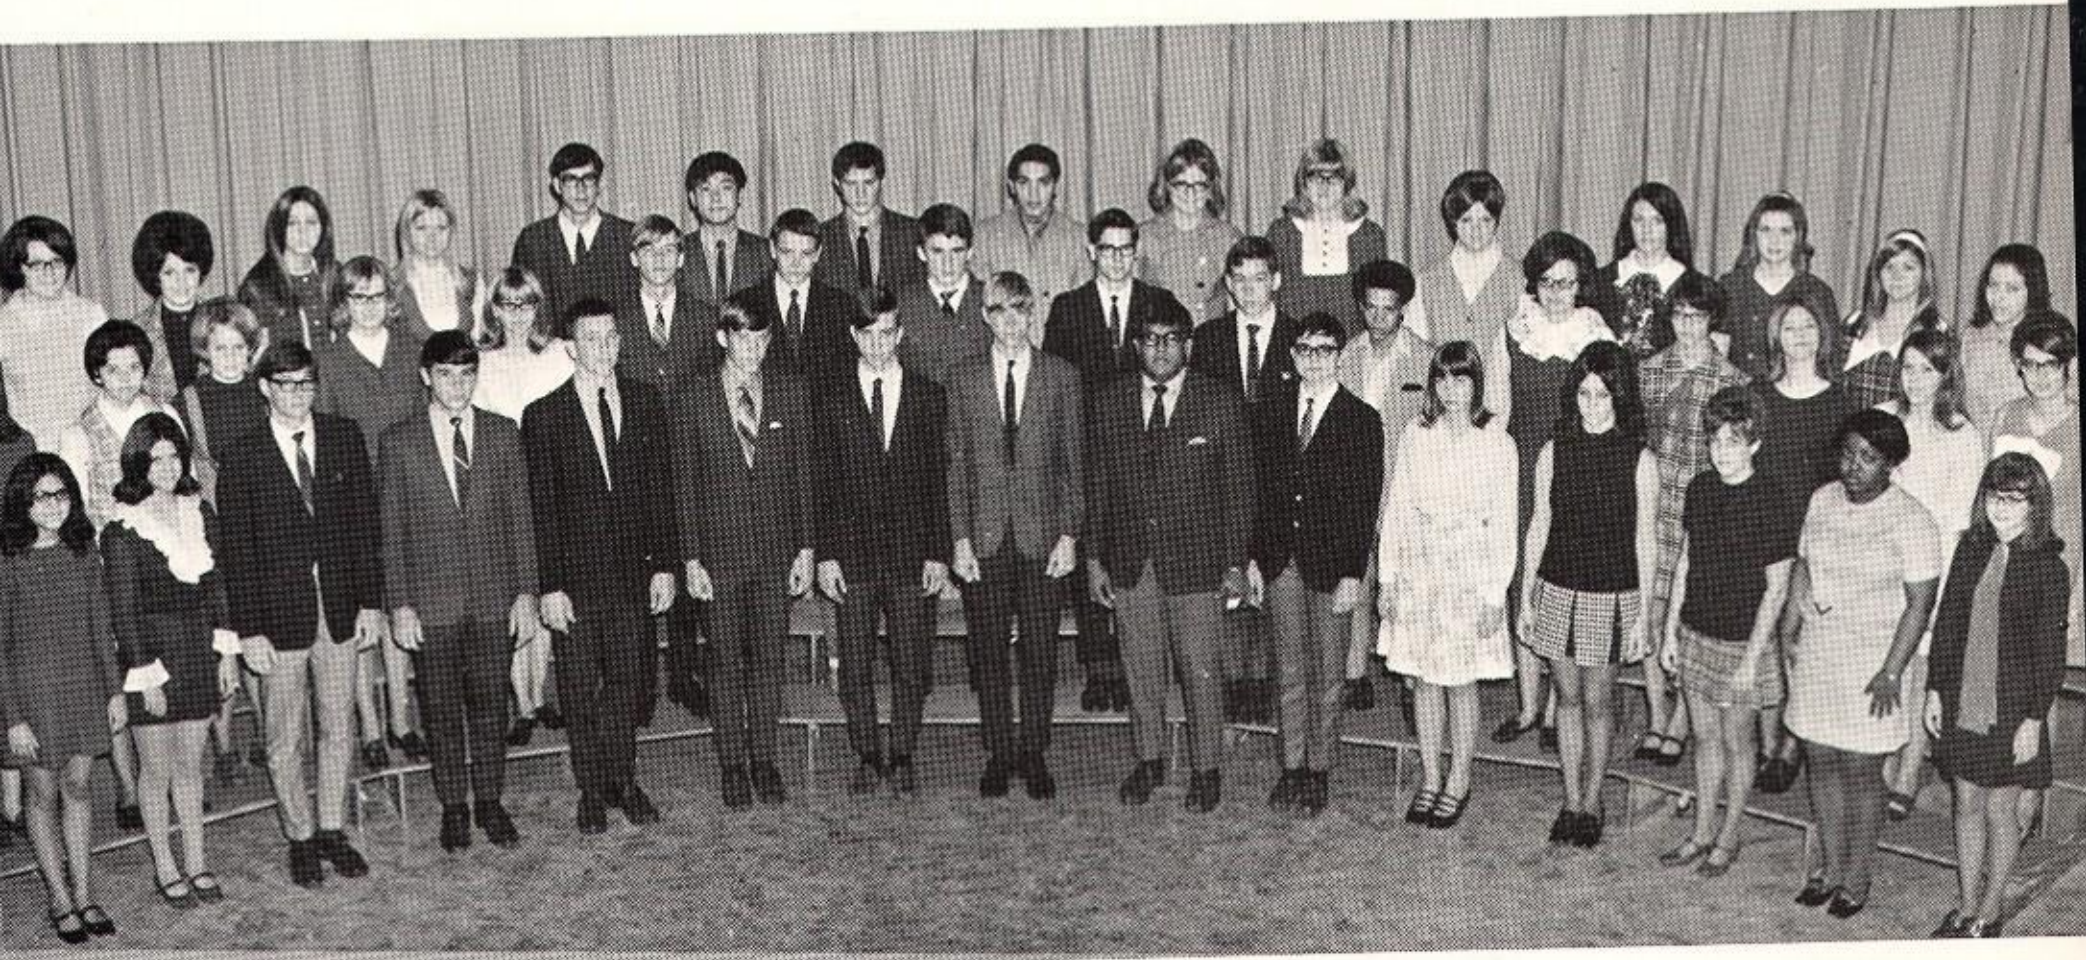

New director for choruses

Students enrolled in vocal music classes this year, found a change in instructors. Mr. Leon Ballenger took over teaching choral classes replacing Mr. Dan Zollars, who had taught the courses for the past several years.

The vocal curriculum is made up of Girl's Glee Club, Boy's Glee Club, Mixed Chorus and Choraleers. These groups presented several performances during the school year, including fall, winter, and spring concerts. They participated in Commencement, Baccalaureate, and in the state music festival in the spring. They also sang for social functions and for school assemblies during the year.

Choraleers — FRONT ROW: J. Rinner, K. Stahl, S. Hawkey, J. Wall, D. Rowland, M. Paulson, M. Titus, D. Bender, P. Shelly, J. Boese, A. Schmidt, G. Fulton, C. Smith, M. Walkenhorst. SECOND ROW: P. ENSEMBLES

Railaires put on Pop Concert

This year's selective ensembles, Railaires, Pep Band, and Stage Band broadened their popularity. Railaires put on a spring Pop Concert for the first time. They also performed in school concerts, helped welcome Paul Harvey to Newton, and brightened the Veteran's Hospital in Wichita with their songs. Pep Band promoted spirit throughout the year at basketball games and pep assemblies. Stage Band traveled to Hutchinson and Wichita State University to participate in clinics and play in concerts. Dances and proms highlighted spring events for them.

AS A MEMBER OF PEP BAND, Brad Schulz, on drums, helps set the beat at games and assemblies.

STAGE BAND MEMBERS chosen by the director from the high school band and orchestra were Dennis Carper (seated at piano), Liz Turner, Brad Schulz, Victor Juarez, Craig Schulz, Neal Lewis, Duane Yoder, Roger Kaufman, Mike

SOCIAL STUDIES

Students file tax returns

Students in senior social studies courses studied the process of filing income taxes second semester. Many students were required to send in a return and this study enabled them to understand their obligations. Seniors enrolled in government participated in Government Day by spending the day with the local government officials, learning the duties of each office. Psychology classes acquired a skinner box for experiments concerning the behavior of rats and hamsters. The results of these experiments could be applied to human behavior.

New to the Social Studies Department was Mr. Theodore Weathers, replacing Mr. Tom Richards, who taught American History, a required course for all juniors.

JEFF ANDERSON conducts an experiment with the skinner box which he designed and built himself.

MAKING PLANS to take over the world are Pat Allen, Joe Wallace, and Karen Metzler. They are participating in a simulation game in Mr. Gary Andrew's second hour International Relations class.

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT: Gary Andrews, Lynn Davis, Mrs. Irmgard Mills, Phil Scott, Charles Triggs, Theodore Weathers.

EXPRESSING HIS OPINION in Mr. Weather's American History class is Steve Okle.

WORLD HISTORY STUDENT, John Bahre, uses a class period in the library to work on a report.

CONCENTRATING on his Income Tax Return is Sig White.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Students gain valuable experience

LOWELL KEMP and Jim Antonowich are assembling a full-wave voltage doubler for their class in Electricity.

The various courses in Vocational Education gave students an opportunity to learn a trade and gain valuable experience. Vocational Machine Shop trained students in the use of machines and tools which could later be used in a trade.

Industrial Electrical Maintenance gave a basis for skills in electronics.

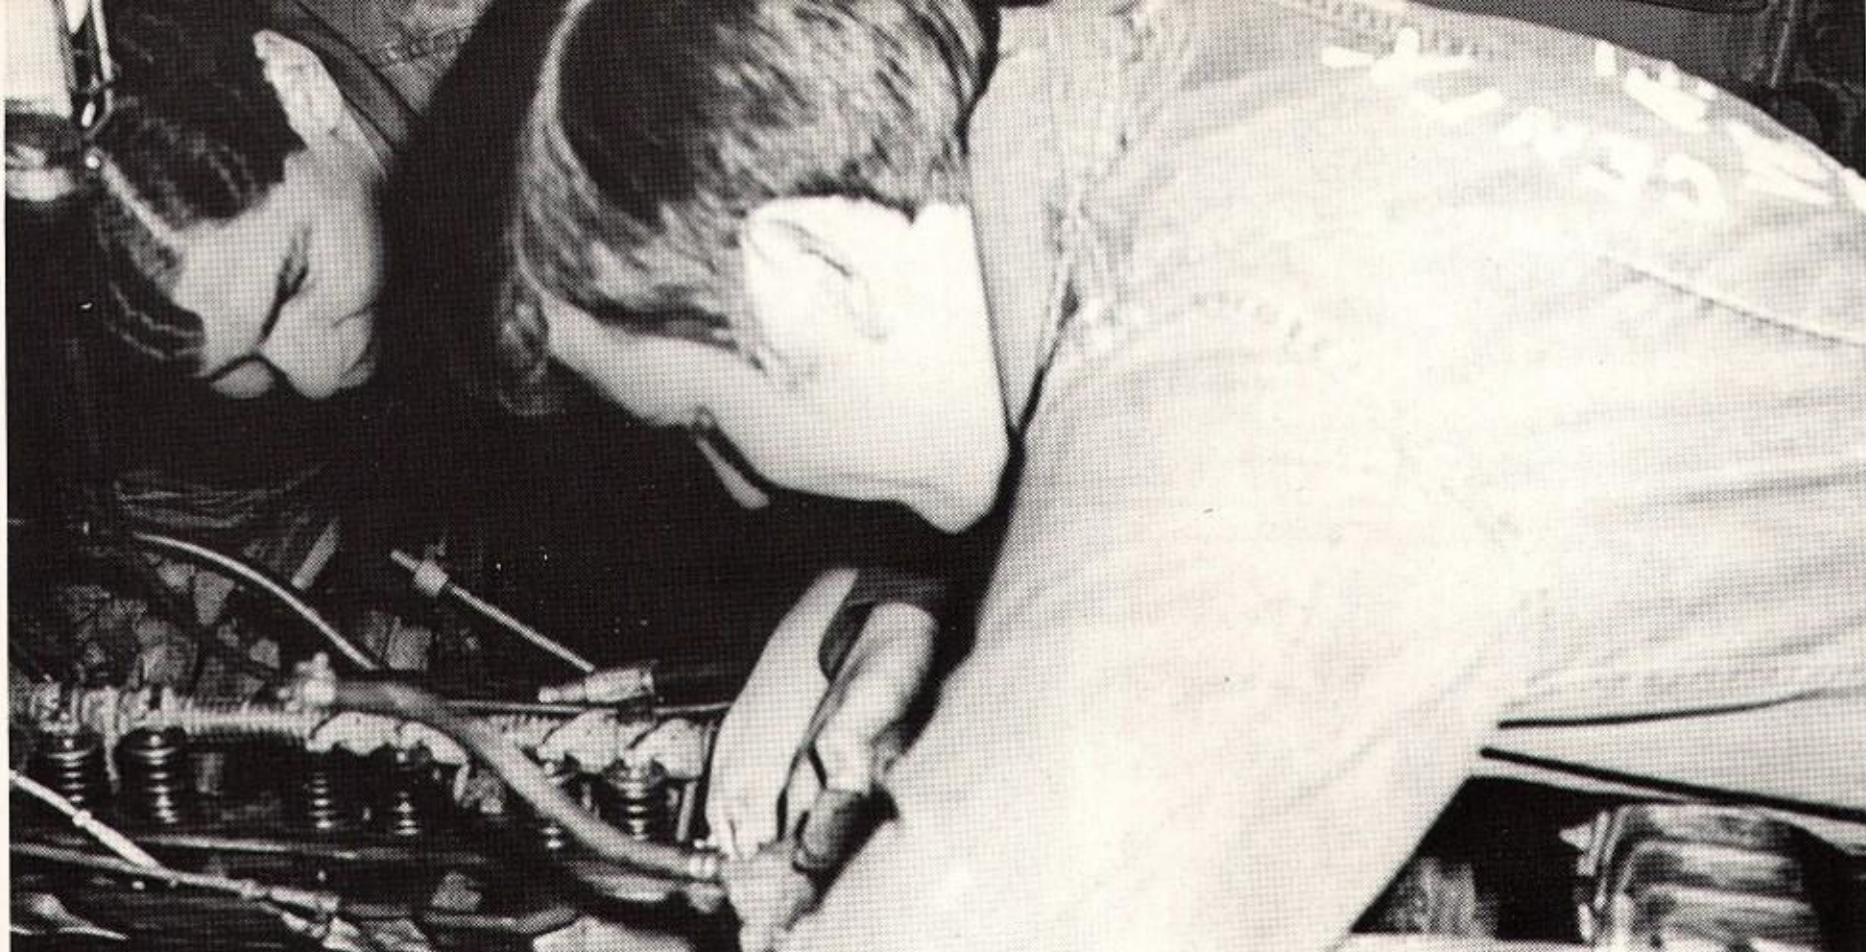

Auto Mechanics provided the students with a basic background of cars for their own purpose or to prepare a student as an Auto Mechanic.

Vocational Agriculture I, II, III, and IV offered experience and an understanding for students who were interested in agriculture. Land classification, meat grading, livestock, and farm management were studied.

Cooperative Industrial Training was a work-study program. Students attended school in the morning and received on-the-job training in the afternoon.

DURING MACHINE SHOP CLASS each student develops his skills using the various machines and tools available.

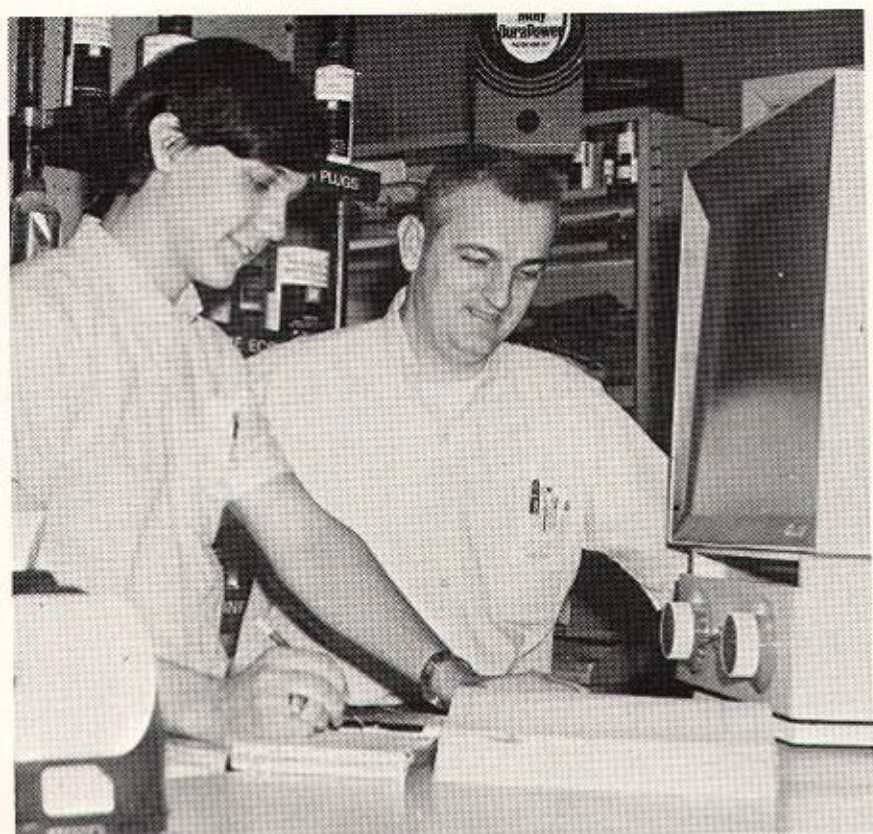

KEN CLARK AND JIM DAILY are replacing an intake manifold of a car engine in their Auto Mechanics class.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION: Ray Beeton, James Igler, Wayne Lyon, Don Wiggins, and Gary Withrow.

WAYNE GIESBRECHT, supervised by his boss, Henry Hill, Jr., takes a parts order while working at Holstine's for CIT.

BOB SADOWSKY works with a hacksaw while Dennis Siemens uses a vice in the workshop of Vocational Agriculture.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

Vocational Building is Remodeled

Remodeling of the vocational building was started last spring and completed this summer. It provided better facilities and ample space for the larger classes. New and better equipment, such as the teletrainer, was provided for some of the classes. Besides the regular classroom studies, students had the benefit of such experiences as field trips and on-the-job training.

Business Education included Typing I, Bookkeeping I and II, Shorthand I, Secretarial Practice, General Business, Vocational Office Education, and Clerical Practice. These subjects provided the students with training for careers in the business field. Students taking these classes learned such things as typing, shorthand, how to operate certain office machines, a basic understanding of business, and practical application of their business skills.

MARY WETCHENSKY learns to operate the dicta-phone in her Secretarial Practice course.

IN VOCATIONAL OFFICE EDUCATION students learn basic office procedures. Here Janet Sump gets on-the-job experience at the Chamber of Commerce as part of her training in her VOE course.

BUSINESS EDUCATION
DEPARTMENT: Larry
Barnhart, Judy Bink,
Wilma Skiles, Joanne
Spade, Paul Stucky.

PAT SCHMIDT improves her skill at using a calculator during her Vocational Office Education course.

KATHY HYDE runs off some copies of a business form on the Zerox duplicator in her Clerical Practice class.

NANCY SCHROEDER and Darrel Claassen add the columns in their business journals.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

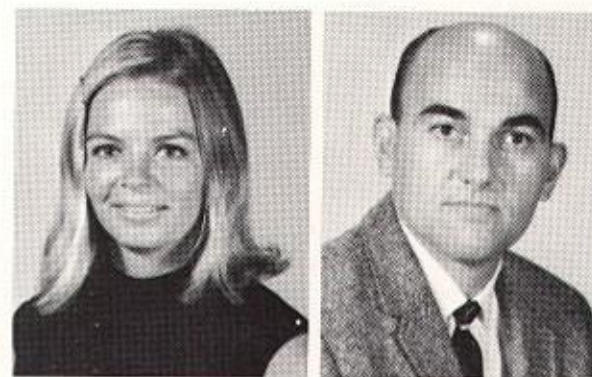

Gymnastic class has first year

Gymnastic class was a new course added to the curriculum at NHS. This course provided time for the girls to practice their routines for competitive gymnastics.

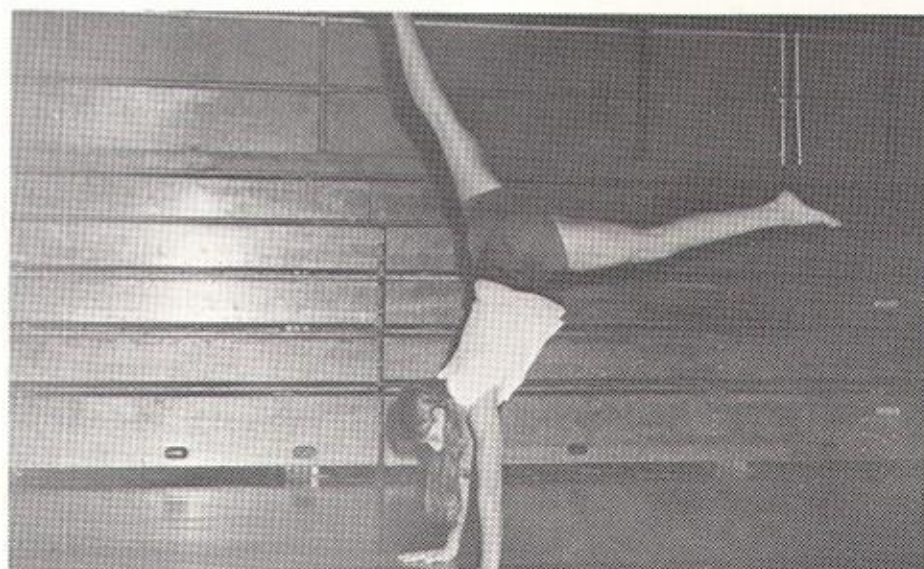

Mrs. Beall, with the help of her student aides, extended the girls' abilities in tumbling and taught them the game of tackle football. Mr. Schlup instructed his students in weight lifting, wrestling, and golf. The students also participated in volleyball, badminton, basketball, tennis, softball, and speed-away.

Advancement in skills, new school records, and inter-class competition sparked the year in Physical Education.

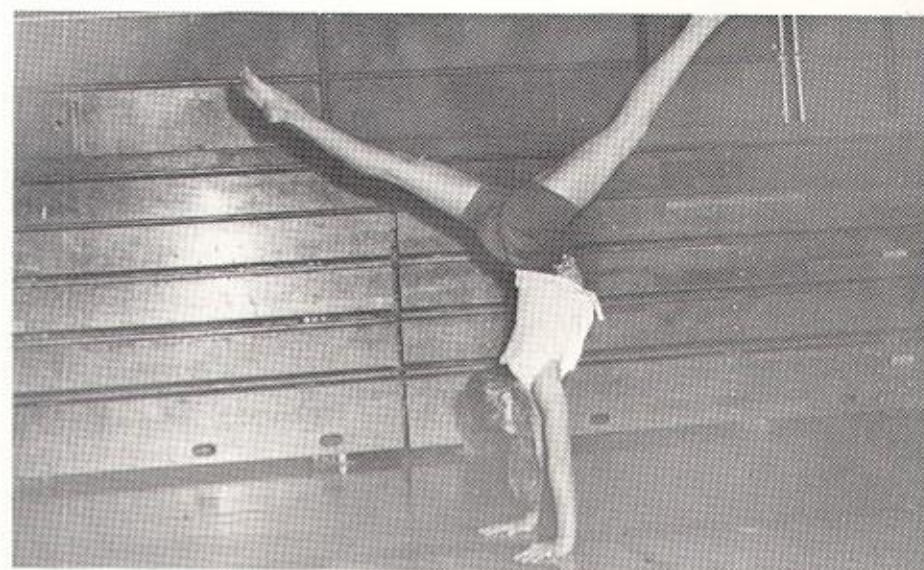

PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT: Mrs. LeAnna Beall and Ken Schlup.

VICKI GEORGE extends her legs . . .

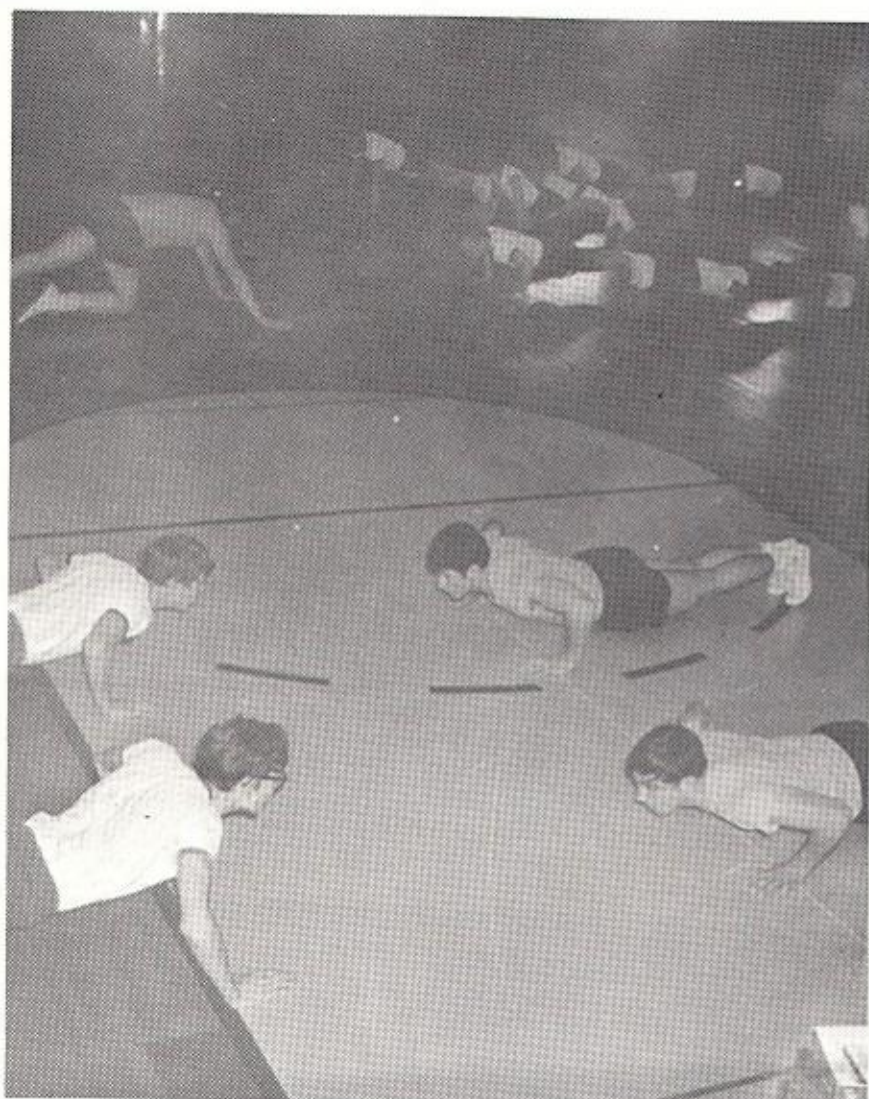

continues through with her back arched . . .

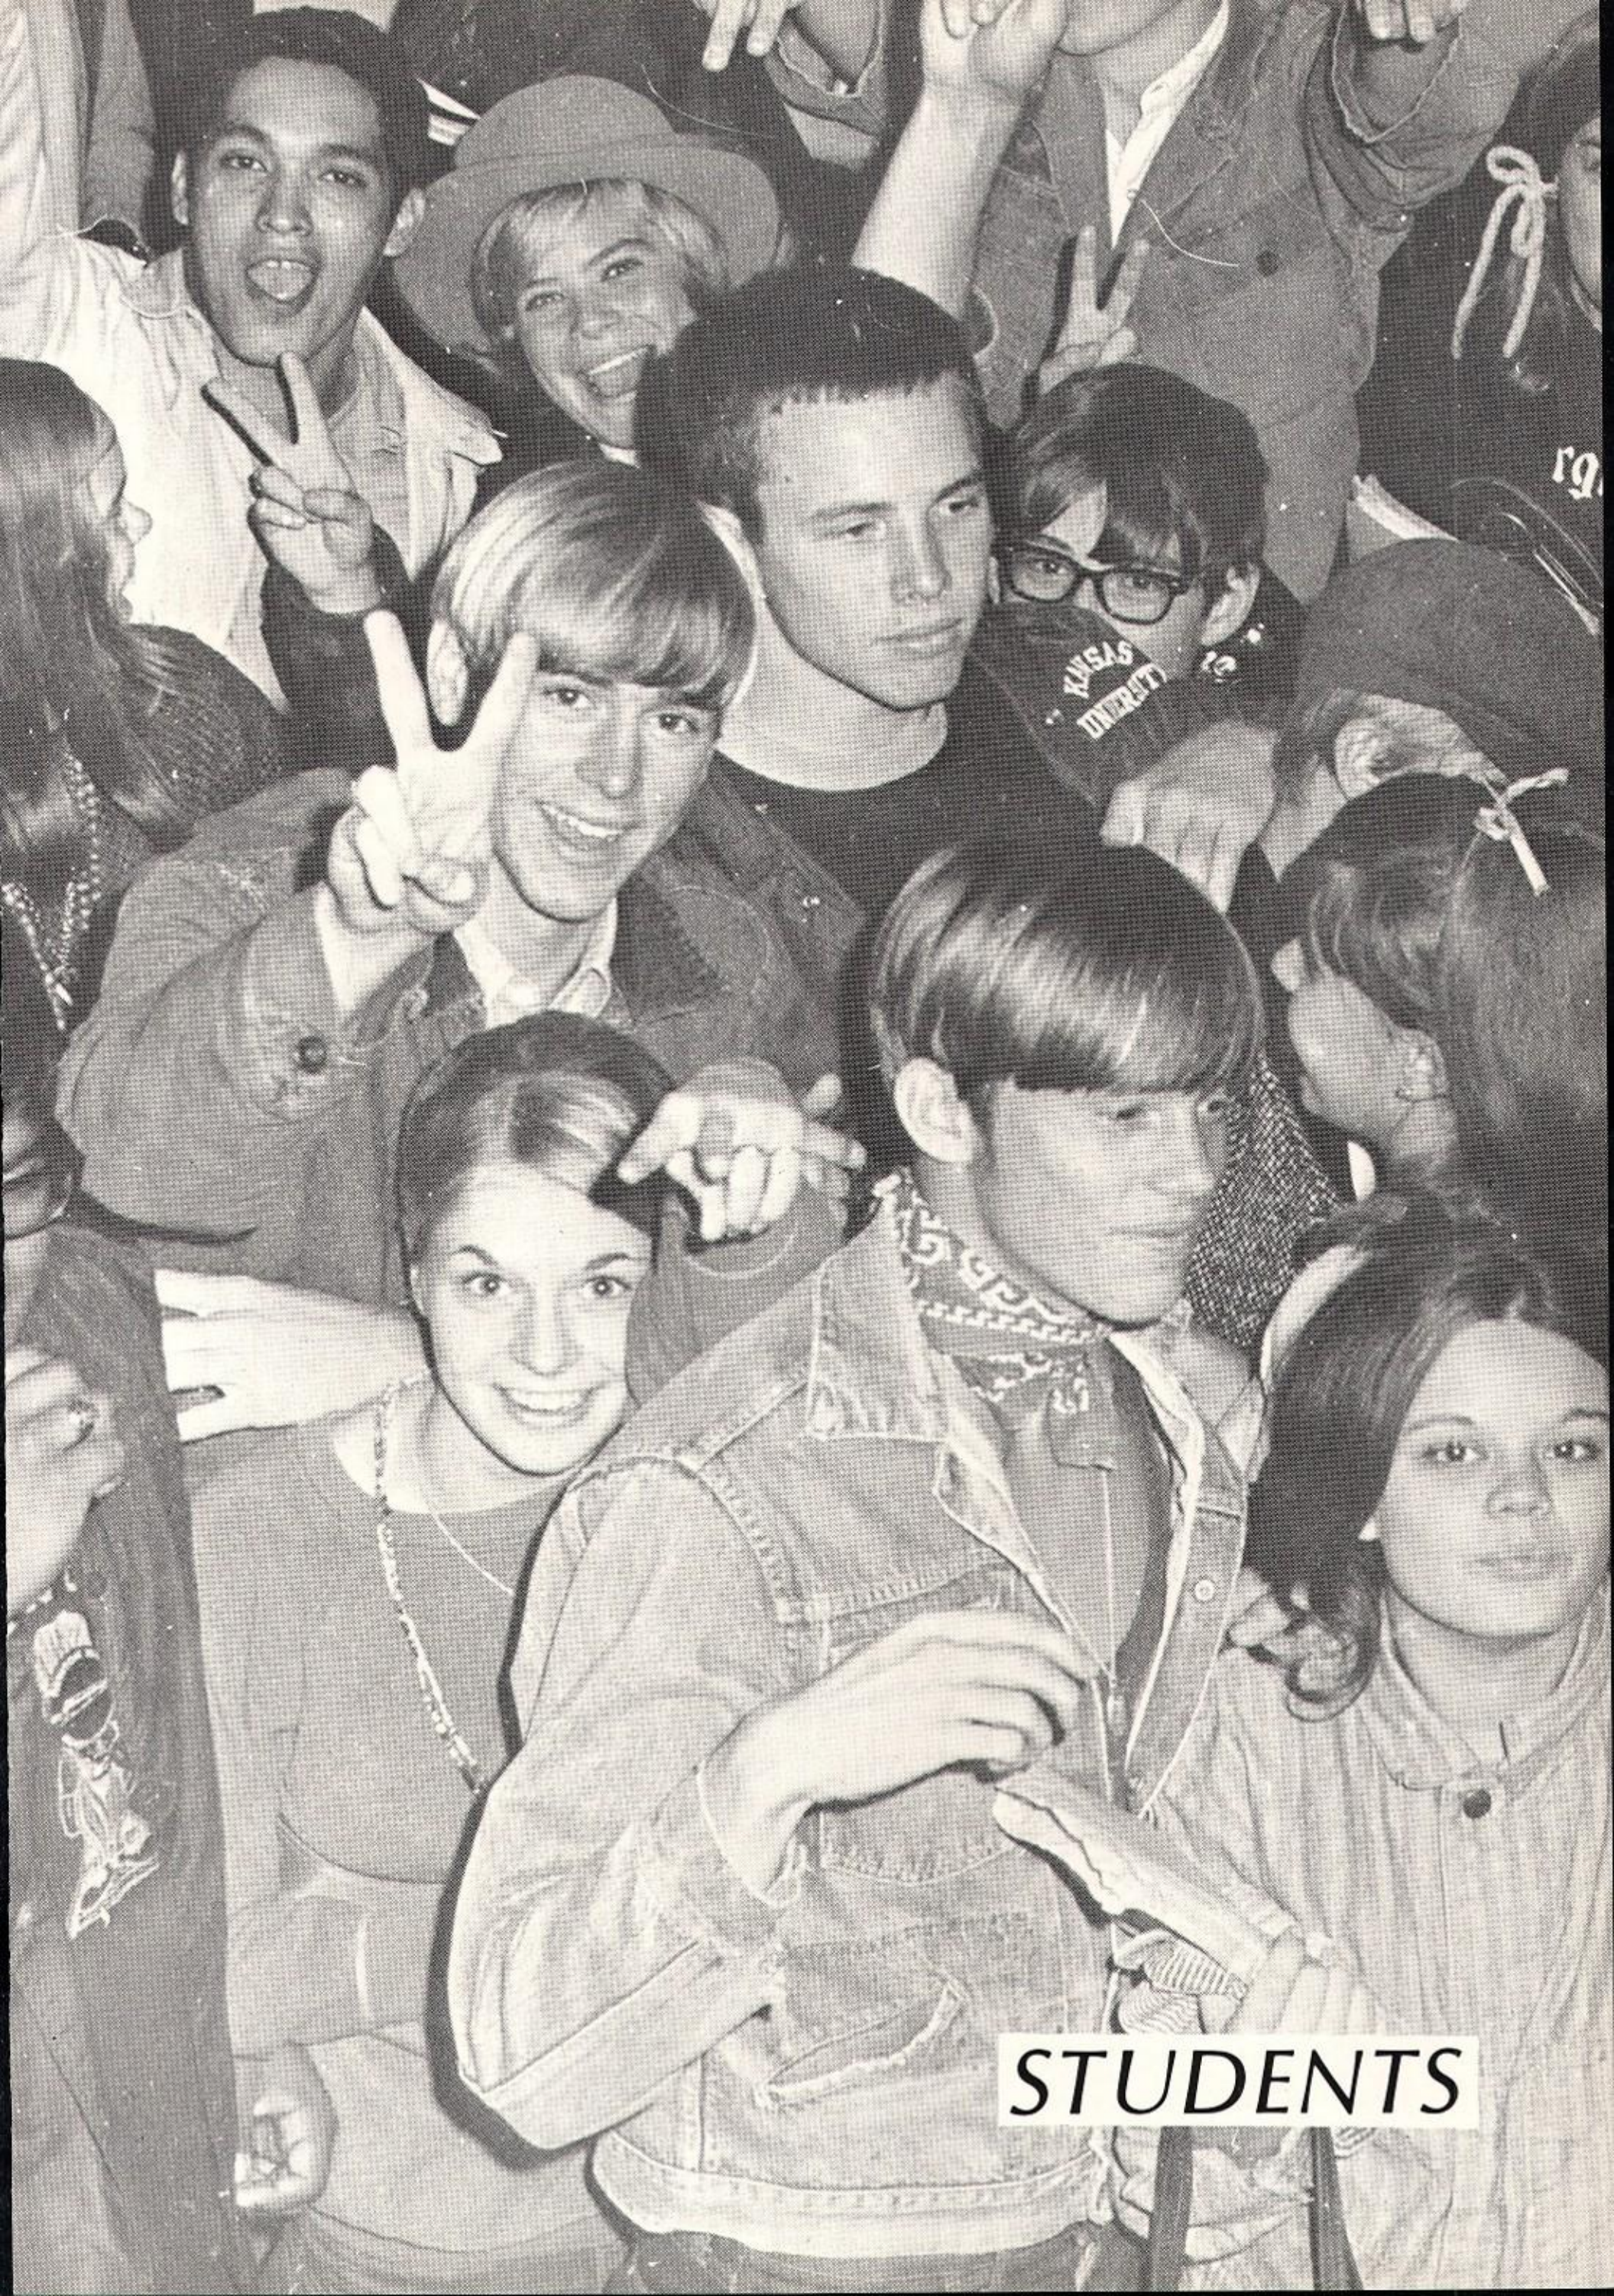

and reaches the floor in completing the walk-over.

PELS, Sig White and Mike Leal, (center right), are leading push-ups in the Boys' Physical Education class.

Seniors enjoy new student center

Many changes and additions were made at Newton High during the three years that the class of 1970 attended senior high. Seniors were among the first to use the new student center, an area in the courtyard supplied with refreshments and studying facilities.

Many class members won honors during their sophomore year as the sophomore football team was undefeated, and many took part in the musical, "Oklahoma!"

Railer Week was new and juniors displayed all their spirit. All the efforts of the school were rewarded when the team broke a long-time jinx and won the homecoming game. Highlights of second semester for juniors were hosting the seniors at the junior-senior prom and events, participating in "Guys and Dolls" and the formation of a student congress.

With a change in administration the seniors were the first to carry school I. D. cards. The senior Christmas party, junior-senior events, prom, baccalaurette, commencement and the all-night party were some of the events that the seniors found memorable in their last year and helpful in their big step toward their future goals.

CLASS OFFICERS chosen in the fall were Ginger Fulton, vice-president; Liz Turner, president; and Dana England, secretary-treasurer. Ginger and Liz held the office of vice-president of the sophomore and junior class, respectively. This was Dana's first year to be a class officer.

ACTIVITIES

ASSISTANTS

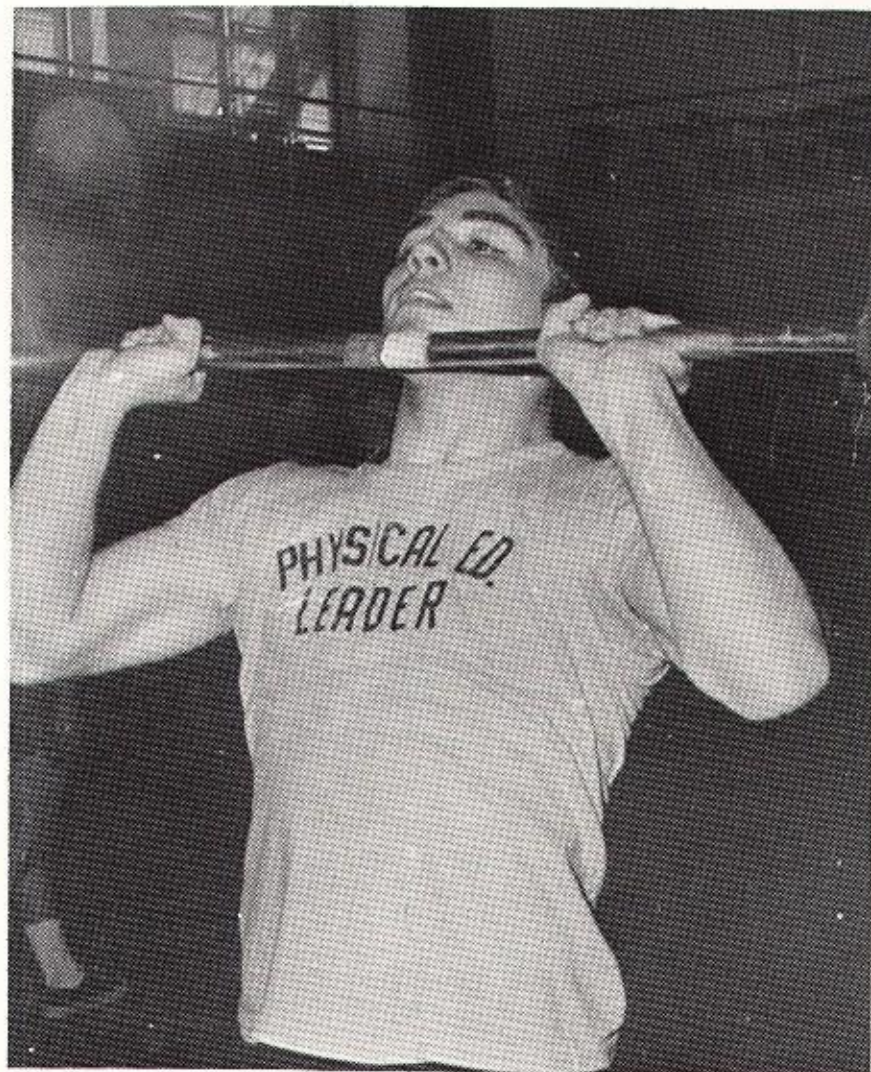

Co-head monitors elected

For the first time, Co-head monitors were elected for the 1969—1970 school year. Monitors devote one hour a day to helping the office secretaries. During the year, the monitors hosted birthday parties for office secretaries, Mrs. Karen McAdow and Mrs. Darlene Stucky, and for Mr. Curtis Fischer, vice-principal. In the spring they held a monitors' party at Yentrouc.

Students wishing to further their abilities may assist teachers in certain classes, such as drama, clothing, gym, social sciences, and laboratory sciences.

CIT CLUB

Members hold annual dinner

Work, study, contests, and dinners kept the twenty-eight members of Cooperative Industrial Training club busy during the year. Those students who took CIT were eligible for CIT club. The members worked as auto mechanics, waitresses, nurse aides, dietary aides, welders, and clerks.

At the Ramada Inn CIT club members held the annual employer-employee CIT-OE banquet, which the students plan, sponsor, and finance. They toured the Hesston Corporation and went to the leadership conferences in Topeka and Hutchinson. In the spring they participated in the Kansas Association of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America convention and contests at Kansas State College, Pittsburg.

CIT CLUB officers for the '69-'70 year were Rick Schill, historian; Toni Neer, secretary; Wayne Giesbrecht, parliamentarian; Bev Haury, treasurer; Olin McKellip, president; Joe Hamm, vice-president; and (not pictured) Janet Custer, reporter. These officers, elected in the fall, organize activities with the help of Mr. Wayne Lyon, the sponsor.

VOE CLUB

Two girls place in competition

Vocational Office Education Club involves all the students of Vocational Office Education. They spend two hours in school classes and two hours working.

By being in VOE Club, each member is entitled to be a member of the state club, BECK. The club went to Wichita State University for two days in the spring to participate in BECK competition. Brenda Langham and Janet Sump took second and third place, respectively, in "Telephone Techniques." During downtown night in Newton, "Moon Girls," alias VOE Club members, distributed "Moon Bucks." The club took a field trip to Hutchinson Junior College where they visited the business department.

VOE CLUB officers for the '69-'70 year were FRONT ROW: Robyn Bair, historian; Brenda Langham, president; Pam Mosiman, treasurer; Janet Sump, vice-president; BACK ROW: Belinda Curiel, secretary; Jill Buckman, reporter; Miss Joanne Spade, sponsor; and Cheryl Hurley, parliamentarian. They held their meetings monthly during class.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

Samuel Pepys highlights year

Samuel Pepys was the theme of the annual English Club banquet held on February 19. Pepys, an English naval officer of the 17th century, kept a diary of his life which has become a work of great literary value.

Any senior enrolled in senior English is eligible for membership in the club. The purpose of English Club is to expand the student's appreciation of English and language as an art form as well as a means of communication.

Officers for the year were Ada Schmidt, president; Viki Myers, social chairman; Christy Vega, social co-chairman; Cathie Collier and Patty Shelly, secretary-treasurers. The sponsors were Miss Joy Smith and Mrs. Irmgard Mills.

Latin Club had many events and projects which kept them busy throughout the year. In the fall, new members were initiated into the club at Santa Fe Junior High. Chisolm Junior High was the scene for their Valentine's party held in February. Late in the year the club also had a pizza party.

Sponsored by Miss Bonnie Selanders and Mrs. Pat Randall, Latin Club promotes friendship and unity among the students of Latin. Officers of the executive council were John Robb, Marsha Titus, Cynthia Froelich, Greg Howard, Toby Harrison, and Connie Kruse.

CHECKING EXCERPTS from Samuel Pepys' diary are English Club officers Cathie Collier, secretary-treasurer; Viki

Myers, social chairman; Christy Vega, social co-chairman; and Ada Schmidt, president.

MAKING PLANS for the next Latin Club activity are members of the executive council John Robb, Greg Howard, Marsha Titus, and Cynthia Froelich. The executive council organized and supervised all Latin Club events.

ENTERTAINING THE MEMBERS of Latin Club at the Valentine's party were members of the organization. Sam Bland

GAL

Club sponsors annual playday

GAL, Girls' Athletic League, is a club for all girls of high school age, maintaining a C or better grade average, and who enjoy participating in competitive sports. Participation in basketball, volleyball, softball, speed-a-way, and bowling tournaments teaches members the importance of good sportsmanship and earns points toward GAL letters.

Each year the club sponsors a playday. Schools of the Ark Valley and surrounding towns were invited to bring teams that participated in four sports, basketball, volleyball, cageball, and aerial darts. Entertainment for the 1970 playday was provided by the girls' gymnastic team of Newton High School. After lunch and entertainment, members of teams in first, second, and third place, determined by the number of games won, were awarded ribbons.

One thousand points gained during the year earn the member a GAL letter. The letters were awarded and new officers were elected at a weekend campout held at the end of the year.

JANET GUSTAFSON, closely guarded by Norma Gonzalez and Judy Esau, struggles to find an open teammate to pass the ball to in the championship game of the GAL basketball tournament. The playoff game was held in Lindley Hall the same night as that for boys' intramural champs.

GAL OFFICERS were Cathie Trussell, president; Doris Shelly, treasurer; Kathy Hyde, vice-president; Diane Brooks, junior representative; Marcia Alterman, secretary; Pati Davis, publicity chairman; Carol Blosser, sophomore representative. Those not pictured: Penny Barker, senior representative; Kathy Baumgartner, assistant publicity chairman; Colleen Hand, student congress representative.

FFA

Earns Superior Chapter Award

By meeting strict requirements set up by the national organization, the local chapter again earned the Superior Chapter Award. Newton's FFA chapter has received this award several times in previous years.

FFA, Future Farmers of America, is an organization for all vocational agriculture students or former students, ages 14 to 21. It gives members a chance to put into practice lessons they have learned in voc-ag class and develops competent rural leaders.

This year's judging teams, under Mr. Jim Iglar, sponsor for FFA, placed fifth at the State Livestock Judging Contest, fourth in Angus Futurity judging, and took sixth out of 50 teams at Kiowa in a poultry, crops, swine, livestock contest.

Changes in the local chapter this year are numerous. The members began showing at state livestock shows and planned a FFA demonstration farm in Newton.

PRACTICING WITH A VISE, Dennis Siemens, this year's FFA president, improves skills he has learned in the class.

FFA OFFICERS were Larry Schmidt, reporter; Bob Sears, vice-president; Darrel Suderman, secretary; Pam Buller, Chapter Sweetheart; Dennis Siemens, president; Terry Sauerwein, treasurer; and Mike Pauley, sentinel.

RAILERETTE OFFICERS were Judy Esau, Nancy Allen, Pati Davis, Gail Sadowski, Mrs. LeAnna Beall, sponsor, and Doris Shelly.

RAILERETTES

Lettering girls start new club

This was the first year that NHS has ever had a lettergirls' club. This group of girls was given the name Railerettes. In previous years the only girls who could earn awards for participating in sports were those who participated in GAL.

Letters were awarded to those deserving girls who participated in basketball, gymnastics, tennis, or track.

Even though this was just the first year for this organization, there were many girls who were enthusiastic about participating. The sponsor was Mrs. LeAnna Beall, senior high girls' P.E. teacher.

RAILERETTES WERE — FIRST ROW: Judy Esau, Pati Davis, Doris Shelly, Marsha Kreyer, Marcia Alterman, Kathy Hyde, Karen Meires, Bobbye Papin, Judy Higgins. SECOND

N-CLUB OFFICERS are Rick Grapengater, Steve Ensz, Dennis Schmidt, and Rick Whitfield.

N-CLUB

N-Club promotes Railer spirit

Once again this year the N-Club members got together to help out in promoting strong school spirit. They were put in charge of concession stands during home football and basketball games and home wrestling matches.

One of the projects of N-Club this year was to help in purchasing a video tape recorder for the athletic department. They cooperated with football and basketball in paying for this.

They tried to have a meeting the first Monday of every month, and at the end of the school year they had a party at Yentrouc.

N-CLUB MEMBERS were FIRST ROW: S. Ensz, D. Smith, L. Stucky, M. Martinez, D. Gonzalez, M. Leal, D. Schmidt, T. Janzen, R. Grapengater, M. Miller. SECOND ROW: D. Koehn, D. Jennings, C. Merritt, T. Church, D. Slack, R.

Whitfield, M. Frey, T. McCreary, T. Church. THIRD ROW: J. Wallace, D. Wahlers, J. Anderson, D. Claassen, V. Bartley, S. McKanna, C. Koehn, K. Coleman, M. Hutton.

NFL

NFL Hosts Tournaments

The National Forensics League is a national organization. It is a type of letterman's club for speakers.

To join NFL, a student must have earned a minimum of 25 speaker points. Points are awarded for placing at the various speech and debate festivals. At speech festivals students participate in original oratory, dramatic and humorous interpretation, informative speaking, and interpretation of prose and poetry.

The Newton chapter of NFL sponsored two tournaments this year, a debate tournament in September and the Ark Valley Forensics Tournament in October. In March they went to the District meet in Salina.

THE NEWTON HIGH Debate Squad is shown gathering information for the debate tournament which was held in September at Newton High.

OBMOSS

Science Club gets new name

OBMOSS (Organization for the Betterment of Minds of Science Students) began its first year under its new name and new sponsor, Mr. Phillip Esau.

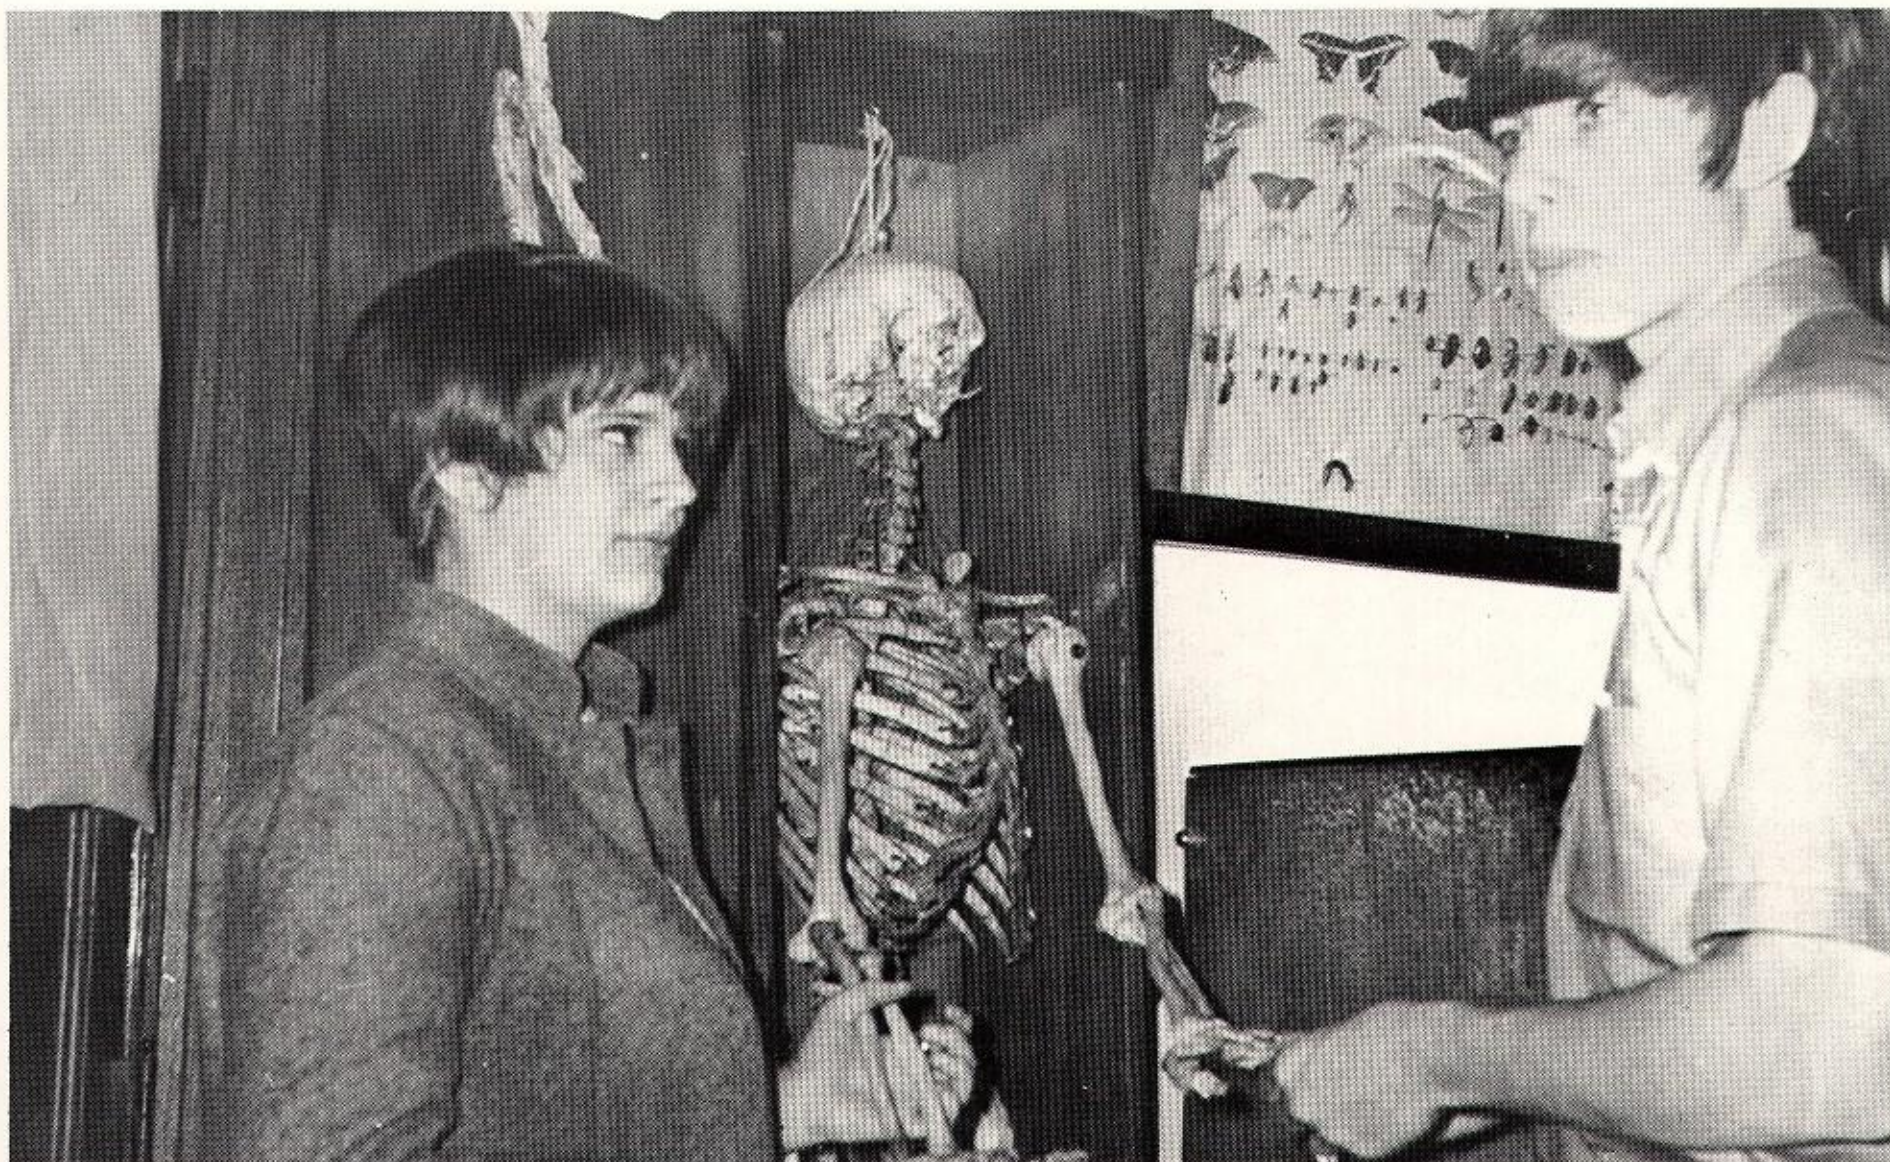

This organization, formerly titled Biology Seminar, took the name OBMOSS so the members could study other fields of science such as physiology, chemistry, and physics.

Guest speakers were invited to several meetings to lecture to the group. At the end of the year a party was held to initiate new members and officers.

OBMOSS OFFICERS for '69-'70 were Cathie Trussell, secretary; Marcia Alterman, vice-president; Chris Tompkins, president; and Ken Coleman, treasurer.

PEP CLUB

Members sell NHS ice scrapers

Girls of Pep Club joined forces to support the athletic teams and promote school spirit. Miss Joanne Spade and Miss Virginia Smith sponsored the club for their first time.

Pep Club started the year with a money-making project of selling NHS ice-scrapers to the people of Newton. The club marched before football games, and at the Queen of Courts coronation they formed a crown for the royalty. The girls sold booster pins for many of the games to increase school spirit among the student body. Members sold reserved seat tickets for the football games. At the end of the year an annual banquet was held with the Derby Pep Club and their cheerleaders to promote friendship with other Ark Valley Pep Clubs.

MARY NICHOLS, Cheryl Morford, Marsha Jantz, Janet Sauerwein, and Mary Olson board the bus for the Regionals.

PLAYS

A children's theatre started

The production of "Sleeping Beauty", a play for children of kindergarten through the sixth grade, started the Children's Theatre at Newton High. Miss Linda Nichols, director of dramatics, will continue having children's plays in the future years.

Also new this year to the dramatic productions was the use of student directors. Selected students of Dramatics II had control of the one act plays, the three melodramas — "True, Blue and Trusted", "The Lowly Milkman", "Little Nell" and "Androcles and the Lion," while Miss Nichols directed the major production of the year, "Jane Eyre".

SUSAN WANCE, throws Mike Mitchell out of her way during a practice for "Androcles and the Lion."

IN THE FIRST stage production of the year, "Androcles and the Lion," the Captain (Bob Gustafson) cannot understand why Lavinia (Jamie Bullard) will not sacrifice to Diana, and by doing so save herself from being thrown to the lions along with the other Christians, who are sitting in the background.

BALDERDASH TRUSTWORTHY (Daryl Dicke) realizes what he must do to save his Sweet Lily from the villain, J. Tamerack Gargle (Loren Mitchell), while Gargle prepares to knock out the hero in the melodrama "True, Blue and Trusted."

DURING DRESS REHEARSAL for "True, Blue and Trusted", Gramama (Brenda Langham) picks up wood she has cut from the villain's fence while Lily (Jan Troyer) tries to convince Gramama she has done the wrong thing.

LIGHTING EFFECTS are important for plays. Loren Mitchell and Craig Thompson begin setting up lights for "Sleeping Beauty."

THESPIANS

Films feature W.C. Fields

A W. C. Fields night was sponsored by Thespian troupe #47. The troupe showed several W. C. Fields films in Santa Fe auditorium. Other projects for the year included an awards banquet and programs given for various civic organizations.

Several Thespians received awards at contest. Medalists were Viki Myers, Debbie Settles, Daryl Dicke, and John Boldenow. Trophy winners for their one act play "Lovers and Other Strangers" were Tim Snyder, Carmen Gonzalez, Naomi Preheim, and Brenda Langham.

USHERETTES

Usherettes keep busy schedule

Usherettes, headed by Cathie Collier, raised funds by ushering at concerts and wrestling matches. They also ushered at football and basketball games. At the beginning of the year candy was sold as a money raiser. The money was used to sponsor the spring Usherette party.

The Usherettes had two outfits, one which they wore during football season and one during basketball season. This was due to a delay in shipping the original outfit.

STUDENT COUNCIL

StuCo presents new dress code

A new dress code was drawn up by StuCo. After weeks of deliberation and meetings with Student Congress, members of StuCo met with the school board and presented the proposed dress code. The dress code, which did away with all exact details of dress, was accepted.

StuCo also initiated a student center in the courtyard of the high school. Vending machines for soft drinks and candy were installed. Plans were being made to set up an inside student center also.

STUCO PRESIDENT Bruce Dempsey expresses his views on the matters at hand during a StuCo meeting while Liz Turner listens attentively.

THE NEW STUDENT CENTER served as a gathering place for students between classes and at noon.

STUCO SPONSORED dances were held in Lindley Hall after football and basketball games.

Homecoming 1969

October 24 will long be remembered by the 1969 Homecoming Royalty. Queen Marsha Kreyer and her attendants Diane Bender and Glynda Koehn reigned over the Homecoming game with Wellington and at the dance the following night.

Marsha wore a gown of baby blue crepe as she was escorted by Dick Smith, for the special Homecoming assembly. She is head A-team cheerleader and an active member of student council and the Railerettes.

Diane, escorted by Steve Ens, wore a gown of aqua chiffon as she was presented to the student body. She is an A-team cheerleader and a member of Railaires and French Club.

Wearing a gown of emerald velvet, Glynda was escorted by senior, Monty Frey. Glynda is also an A-team cheerleader and participates in many school activities.

Queen of Courts 1970

The night of the Basketball Homecoming was full of excitement for the Queen of Courts Candidates, Jacqueline Duncan, Wilma Schulz, and Cheryl Woolsey.

The half-time coronation of Queen Jacqueline and her attendants Wilma and Cheryl, spirited the Railers to a win for their Queen in the game with Derby.

Jacqueline, escorted by Steve Belgard, wore a gown of red velvet for the half-time event. She is an A-team cheerleader and plays cello in the orchestra.

Wilma chose a gown of purple velvet and was escorted by Steve Ensz. She is a member of the Pep Club and serves as one of its representatives.

Cheryl, whose escort was David Slack, wore a gown of white lace and American Beauty red velvet. Cheryl is vice-president of STUCO and is an officer of Thespians.

DRUM MAJOR AND TWIRLERS

Twirlers lead Veterans Day Parade

Besides leading the band at football games, the drum major and twirlers led the Veterans' Day Parade and the Memorial Parade for the 69th Brigade.

The twirlers put in much time, work, and effort getting ready for their performances. They sometimes had only two or three days to prepare new routines, and so they would practice over their lunch hours, after school, and evenings. They attended a Twirling Clinic at Wichita State University during the summer and participated at KU Band Day. Besides regular twirling routines, they presented a fire routine and a color guard routine.

The drum major and twirlers were sponsored by Miss Nichols and Mr. Dwight Beckham.

DRUM MAJOR was Dwight Wiebe; Twirlers were Ruthe Ashcraft, Cindy Budde Lowe, and Cindy Unruh.

ONE OF THE DUTIES of the twirlers and drum major was to lead parades. Here they lead the Veterans' Day Parade down Main.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders attend camps

The A-Team cheerleaders attended the National Cheerleader's Association (NCA) Camp at the University of Oklahoma for one week last summer. They received two blue ribbons, one red ribbon, and one white ribbon. They also won the spirit stick, the highest honor awarded, for two consecutive nights. In the fall they attended a one-day clinic at Derby where they learned new cheers taught to them by a NCA instructor.

B-Team cheerleaders attended a one-day camp in Manhattan at the beginning of the year. Afterwards they went to the KU-Nebraska game, and participated in the pre-game show.

To raise money the cheerleaders washed car windows at the drive-in and held a money maker and pep rally at the Fox Theatre. They also sold doughnuts in the halls throughout the year.

FOOTBALL

Footballers finish fourth

REACHING FOR A PASS in the Winfield game is senior end Ken Coleman.

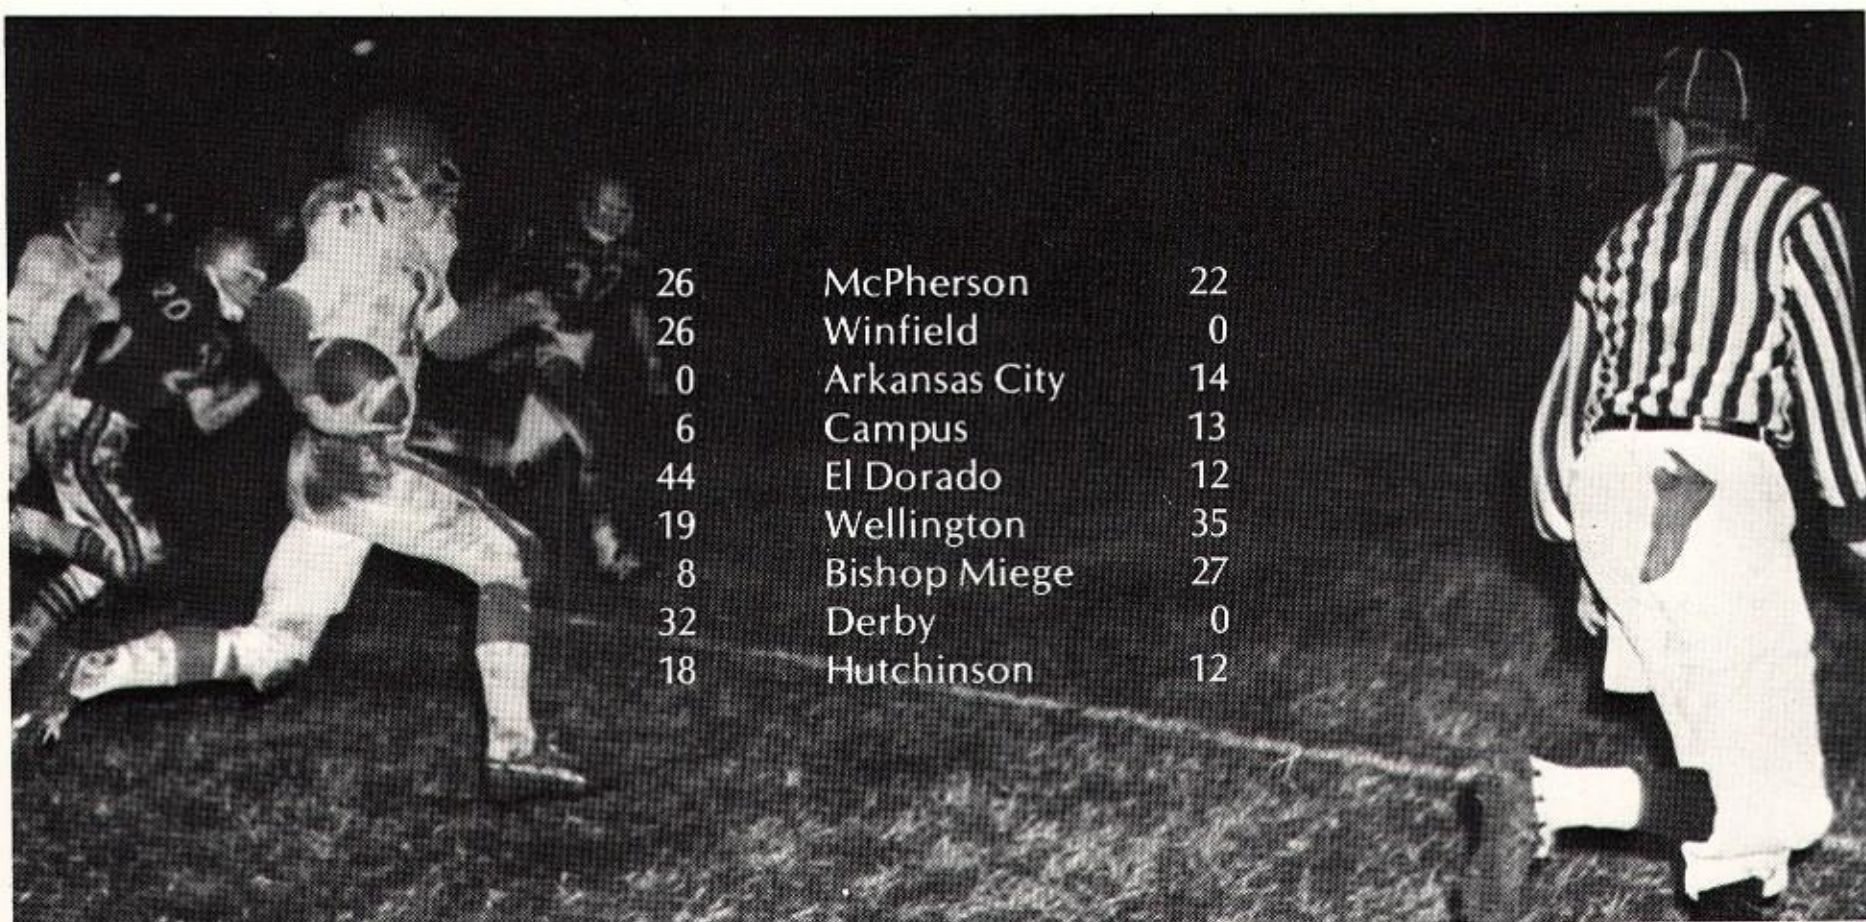

Finishing with the best record since 1963 the Newton Railroaders ended this year's campaign with a 5-4 record. The squad returned 15 lettermen who led the team to a fourth place finish in the Ark Valley League.

The Rainers edged McPherson in the season opener and dumped the Winfield Vikings the following week. Ark City blanked the Rainers for the first loss of the season. Campus derailed Newton for the second loss. The Rainers got back on the right track with an impressive win over El Dorado, but the Wellington Crusaders gave Newton their third loss of the year.

In the first meeting between Bishop Miege and Newton, the Stags came out on top of a 27-8 score. Newton ended the year successfully with a 32-0 whitewashing of Derby and a 18-12 thriller with the Salt Hawks from Hutchinson. The B-team and sophomore squad showed promise as they posted 5-0 records for the year.

The season ended officially at the football banquet where Head Coach Don Willson presented letters to 29 of the squad members.

MIKE MORTON AND GREG SACKS were named to the All-Ark Valley second team for their excellent playing ability.

AN ARK CITY PLAYER tries too late to block the shot of Vernon Bartley.

The basketball season was brought to a surprising end when it was announced that two Newton Railers had been named to the All-Ark Valley second team. Selected for this honor were starting forwards Mike Morton and Greg Sacks. Morton led the Railers in scoring honors for the season with Sacks finishing a close second. Their order of completion in rebounding was just opposite with Sacks dominating the backboards.

In his second season as head coach, Cliff Tillett finished the season with a record of eight wins and thirteen lost games. Again the Railers placed second at the regionals.

NHS wrestlers take third at State

The Newton High wrestlers ended their 1969—1970 season by placing third in State. They began by taking first in the Liberal Tournament, second in the Newton Invitational, second in the Ark Valley, second in District, and fourth in Regional.

This was coach Delbert Erickson's second year as the Newton coach and the second year his team has placed in the top at State.

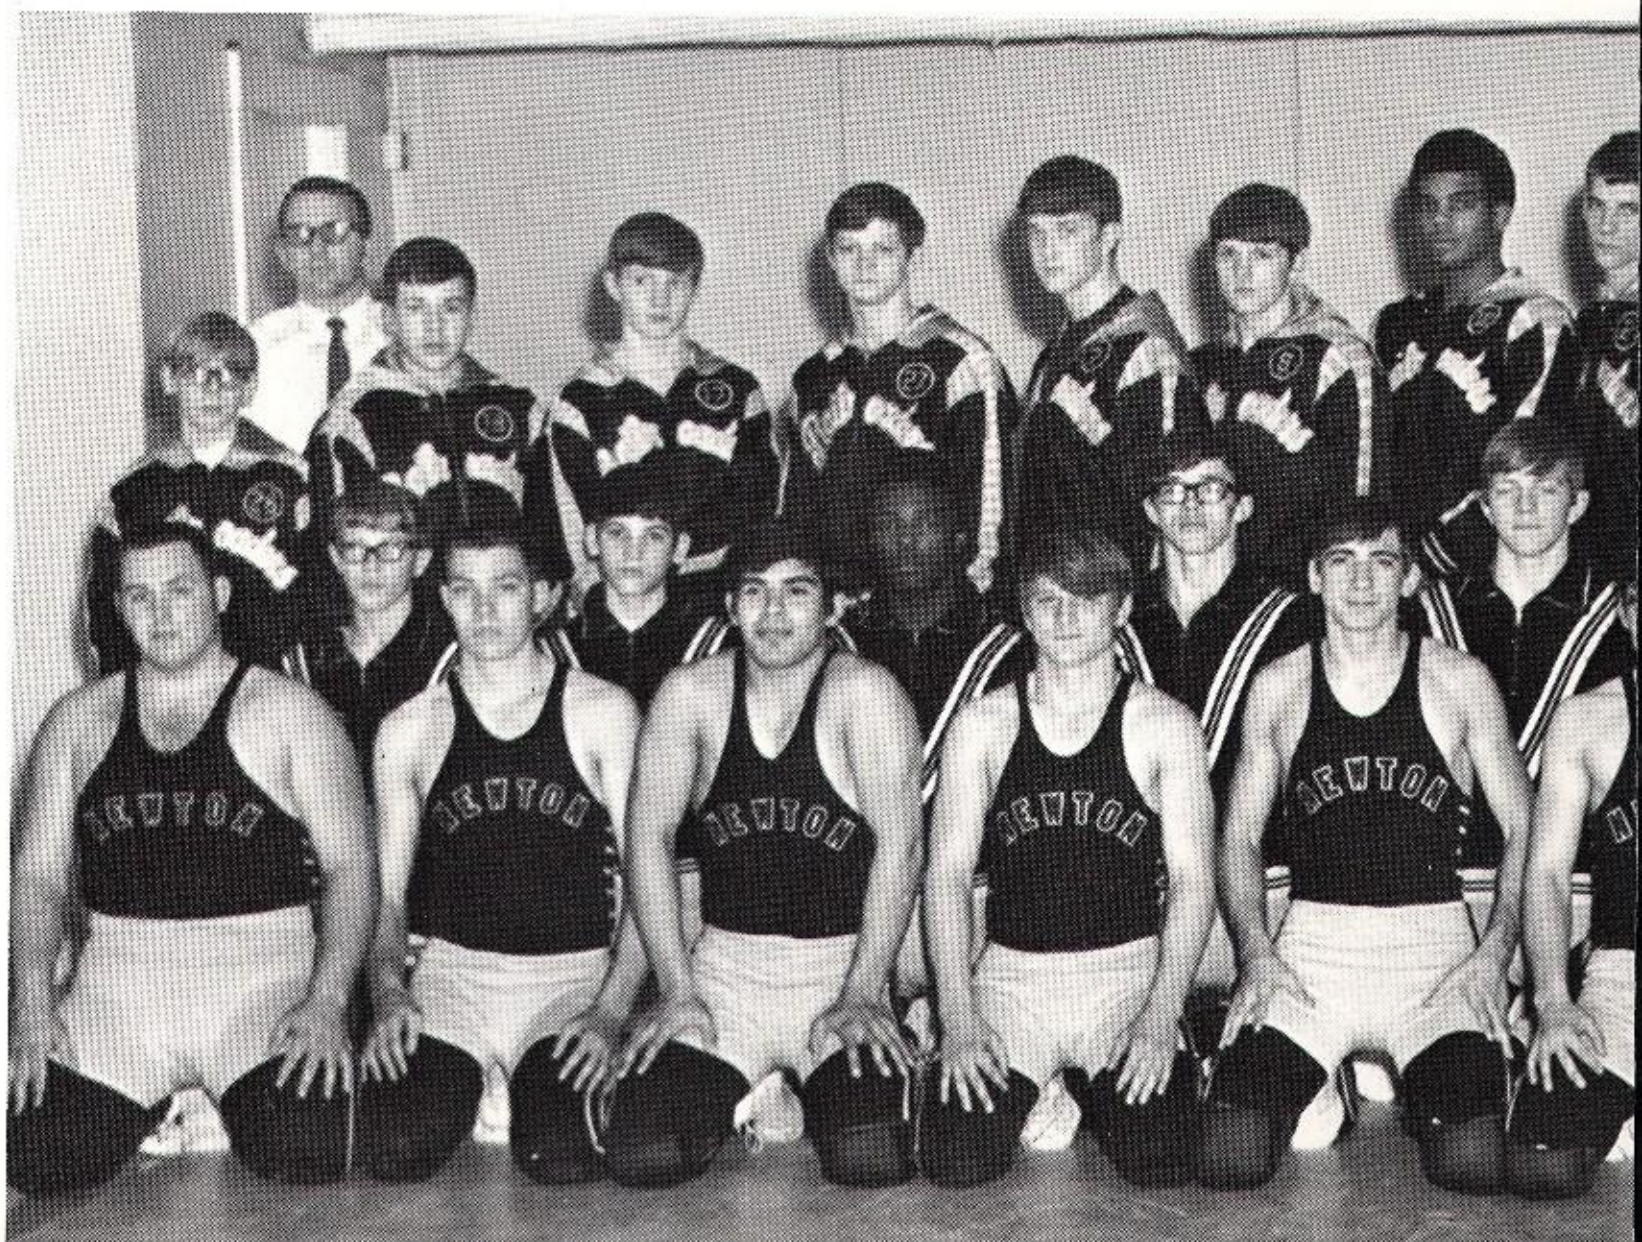

Sig White and Mike Miller both placed first at State. White had a record of 21 wins and 1 loss. Miller had a record of 20 wins and 1 loss. Both participated in State competition last season.

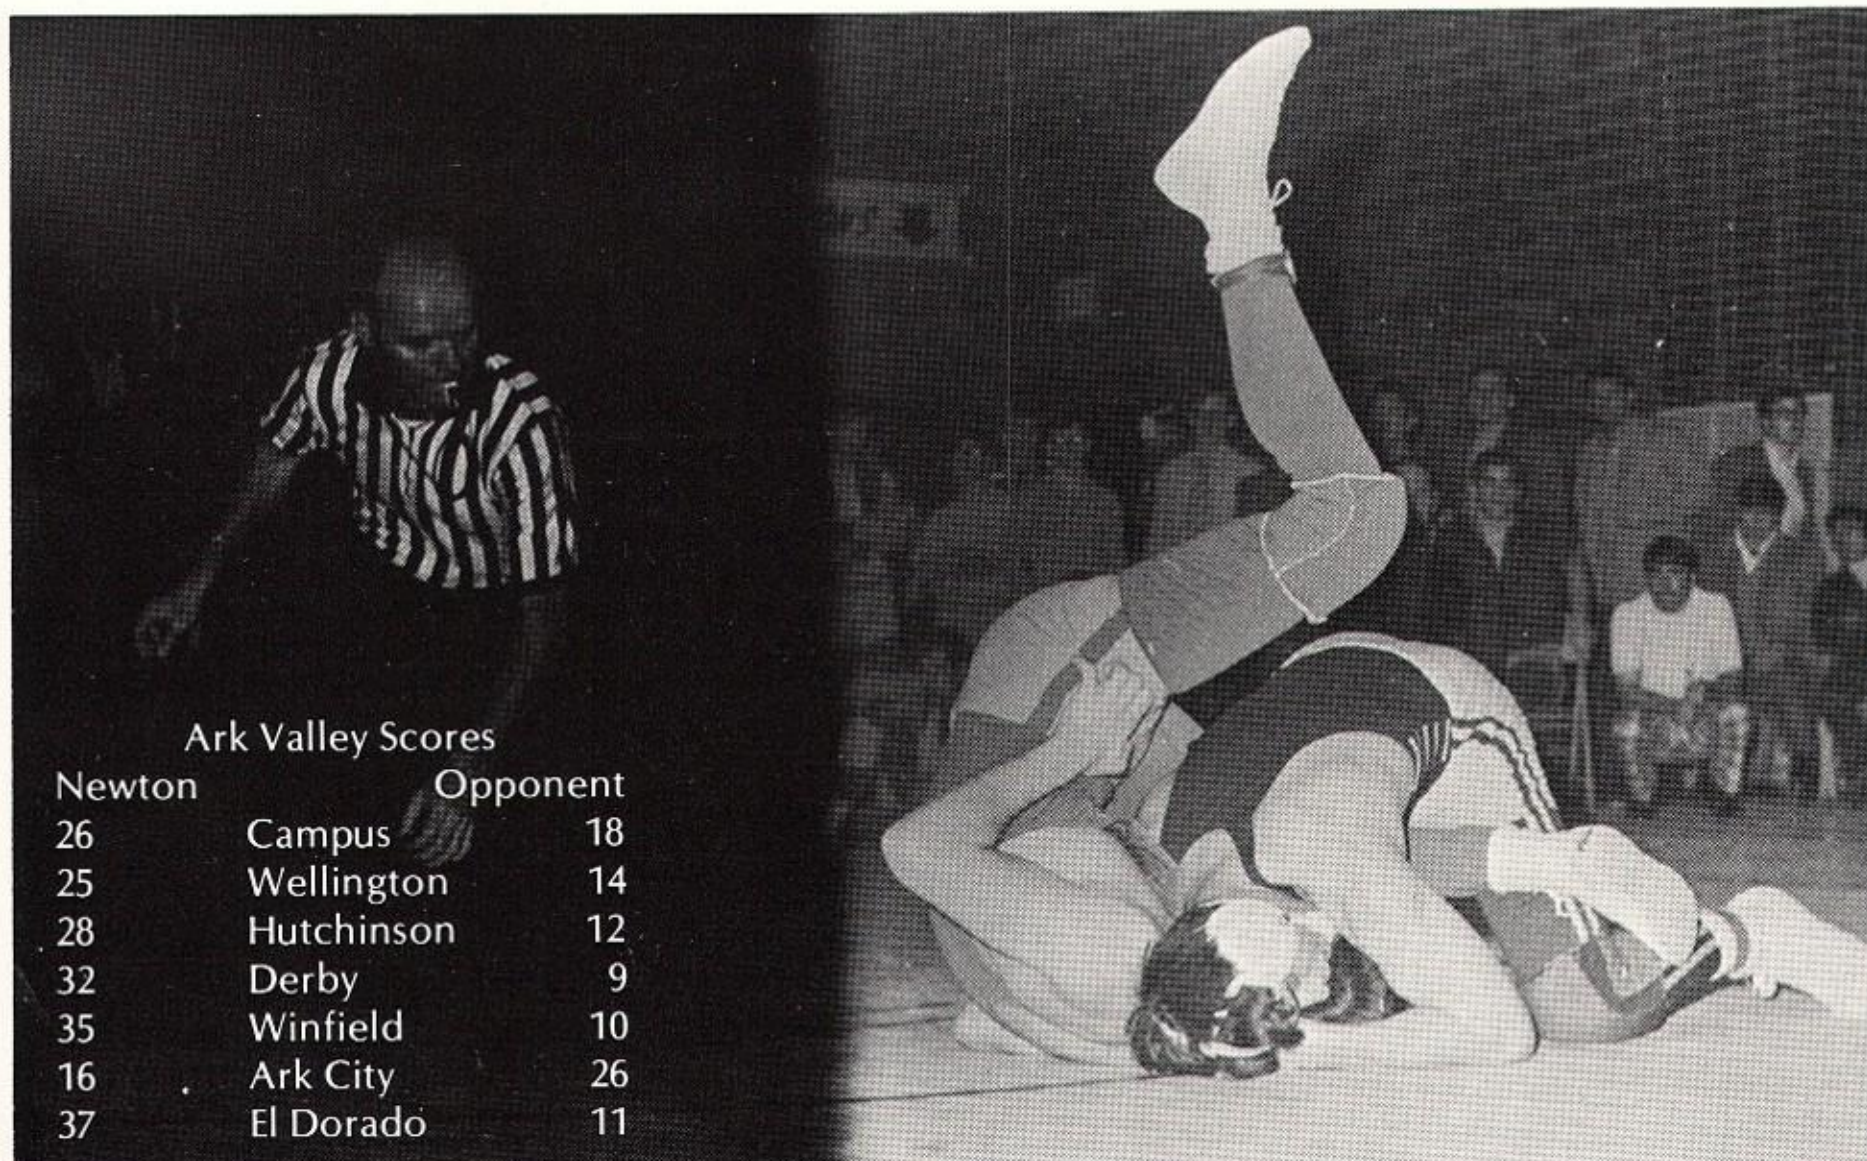

Senior Mike Leal and Junior Mike Martinez both placed third in State.

GOLF

Experience paces success

With all the members of last year's golf team returning, experience was no problem for this year's golfers. A young and experienced team will be present next year since only two seniors will graduate this year.

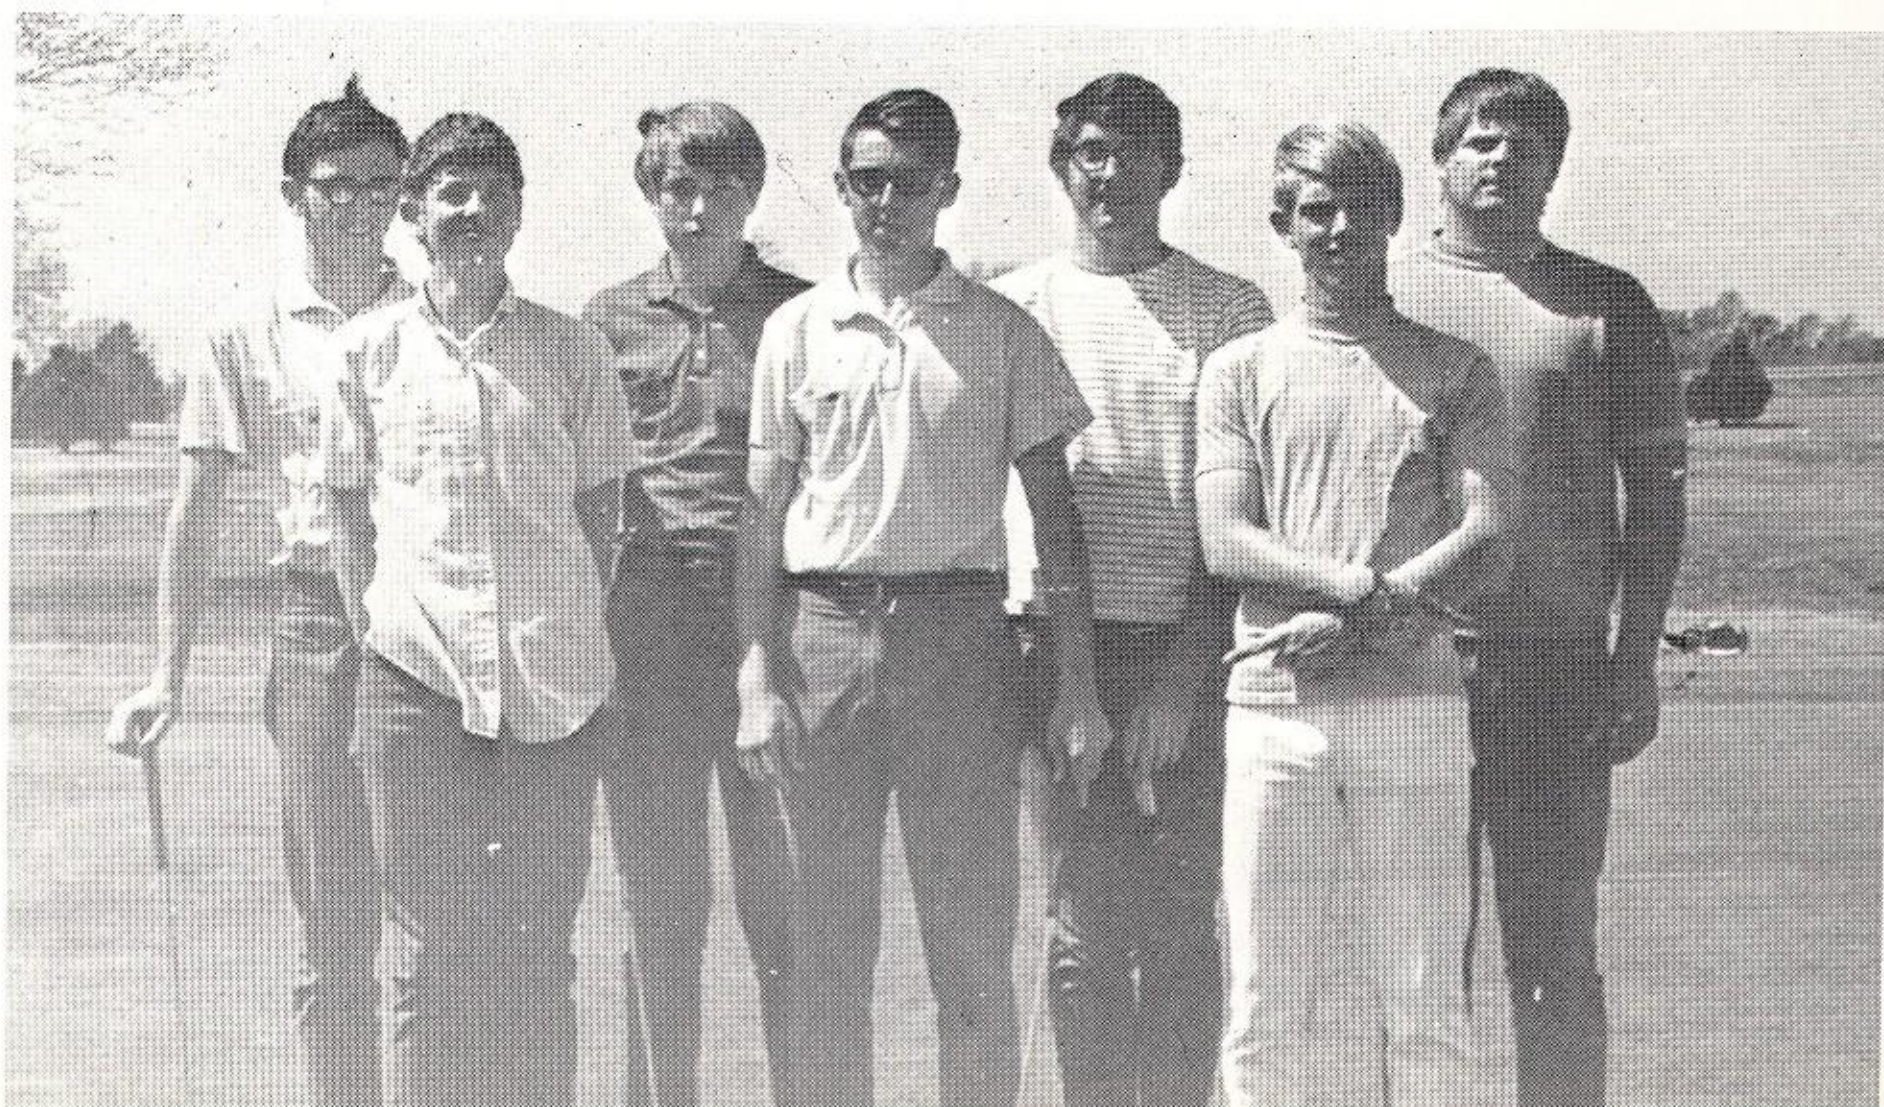

Trent Ash and Dick Edwards were the only medalists this year. Ash received his at the Newton Invitational on April 3 while Edwards qualified for his medal at the Regional Meet in Hutchinson. In addition to his medal, Edwards also qualified to participate in the competition at the State Golf Meet at Prairie Dunes at Hutchinson.

BASEBALL

Batmen end up on top at State

Newton High's 1970 baseball team ended their season by taking first in the state competition. It was the first time Newton has ever won this crown. The nucleus of this team was made up of ten returning lettermen from last year. In overall play, the team won 14 and lost 7. This is one of the best records ever for NHS. The team was made up of 28 players; nine of these were seniors who had previously lettered.

This was the first year for Mr. Bill Moore as head coach. Mr. Gordon Stineman was assistant coach. The team was managed by Terry Church.

When asked his opinion on the season, Mr. Moore commented: "The only sport to win the state championship this year at Newton, and the whole thing went almost unnoticed by the student body."

SENIOR EVENTS

FORMAL EVENTS

Seniors receive their diplomas

ELIZABETH TURNER, president of the senior class, delivers her opening remarks at commencement.

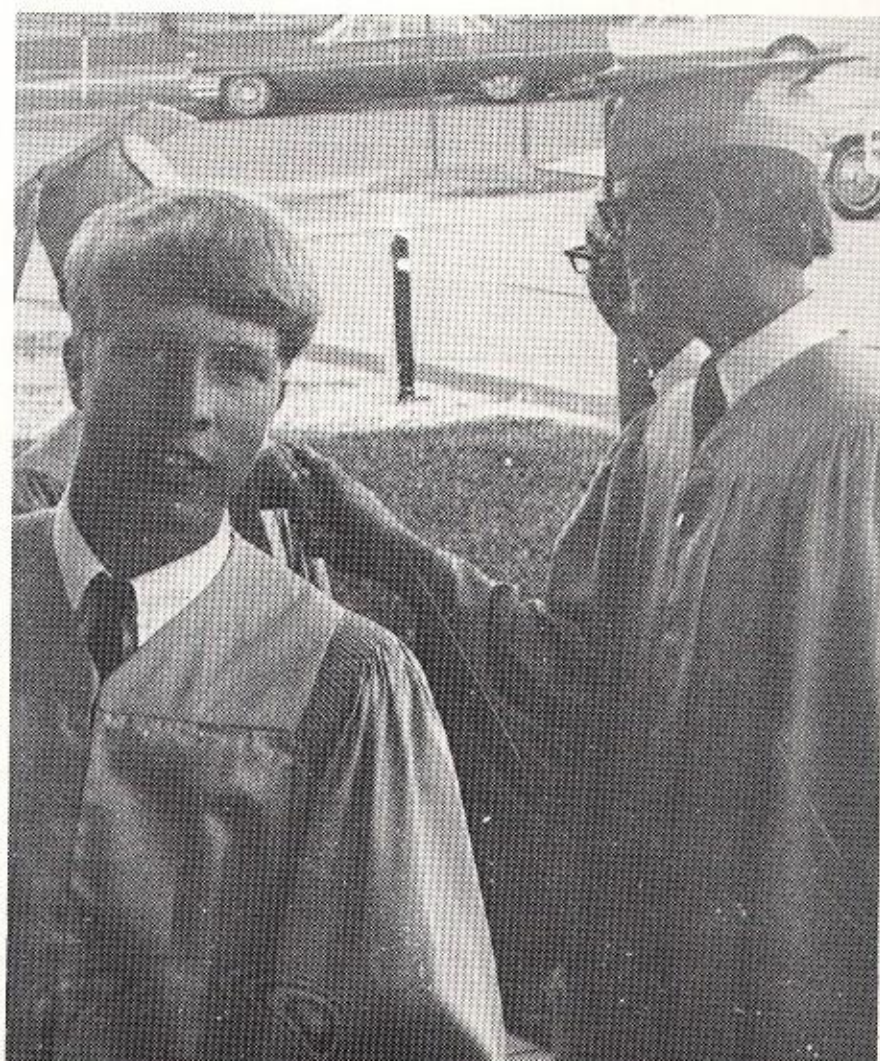

Graduation was the high point of the year for the class of '70. On the night of May 25 the seniors marched across the stage, received their diplomas, and then proceeded to the annual all-night party sponsored by the parents.

Other formal events taking place during the year were the Senior Banquet, the senior Christmas Party, and the Junior-Senior Prom. The senior Christmas Party was held on December 23 in Lindley Hall. The "Gold Plush Blues" provided music in the decorated atmosphere of "Candy Cane Land."

On April 9 the Senior Banquet, carrying the theme of "Soar Into The Seventies," was held at the first Methodist Church. Music, speeches, and baby pictures provided entertainment for the Banquet.

Chisholm junior high gym was the location of the annual Junior-Senior Prom on the evening of April 25. Decorations of a ceiling of yellow and brown crepe paper, walls of green crepe paper, and four murals captured the theme of "Camelot."

GLENN DuBOIS and fellow classmates are getting ready to line up for graduation exercises.

SENIORS reminisce about their high school days as they listen to the speakers at the Senior Banquet.

SENIOR HONORS

Ada Schmidt NMSQT Winner

In the history of Newton High School, Ada Schmidt became the third NMSQT winner. Winners were chosen from the top one percent of participating seniors in the nation who were semi-finalists and then finalists. Steve Randall, Patty Shelly, and Dick Lehrman were semi-finalists from Newton High School.

Winner of the annual DAR scholarship award was Liz Turner. Chosen for her outstanding citizenship she was awarded a pin and honored at a regular meeting of the local chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution.

Pat Allen was the winner of the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow contest. The test was sponsored by General Mills and given in the Home Management classes. For her honor, she received a charm.

Nancy Lewis, was one of the five state finalists for the Elk's Club "Most Valuable Student" scholarship. Her application was entered in national competition.

Janet Sump and Brenda Langham were both winners in state competition in secretarial skills.

Other senior students receiving outstanding awards and scholarships were Steve Randall, recipient of the Kansas University Honorary Summerfield Scholarship; and Rick Grapengater and Jeff Anderson, winners of the Putnam Scholarship from Kansas State University. Joe Wallace received a Navy Reserve Officer Training Corp Scholarship, while Roger Goodman received the Army ROTC Scholarship. Each of these awards is an honor and a symbol of outstanding ability.

Although only a few seniors were winners of special awards, students who attained honorable mention or honor roll should be recognized also.

BESIDES STUDYING or working on debate, NMSQT winner, Ada Schmidt, sings in Railaires.

BRUCE DEMPSEY works part time at the Kansas State Bank, when not heading the student body as STUCO President.

Distant footsteps echo throughout the corridors of time

I would like to extend special thanks to the following people, for without them there would have been no 1970 Railroader. Mr. & Mrs. Pat Shoemaker and Mr. & Mrs. S. A. Morse for student pictures. The Yearbook staff: Jack Burns, Roger Goodman, Dick Smith, Kim Krueger, Barb Phillips, Karen Metzler, Dana England, Cathie Trussell, Linda Peterson and staff photographers: Curtis Schmidt, Craig Thompson, and Dan Thomas. Mrs. Susan Kaufman, our advisor, deserves special recognition for her patient assistance throughout the year.
